FORTHCOMING EVENTS

Auckland Swiss Club

AUGUST-FEIER 1962

As advised in the last issue of the HELVETIA, the Auckland Swiss Club is celebrating the National Day on August 4th 1962, at the Professional Club, 12 Kitchener Street, Auckland, and it gives us much pleasure to offer again an evening with a very versatile programme. The official part will not be too long and yet most interesting. For the entertainment we were able to persuade Mr J. Arnold and his son to come to Auckland to give us a special treat—to hear the very true and free expression of jodelling. Mr J. Arnold has been participating in many "Saenger-und Jodlerfest" back home, winning first prizes with group jodelling and solo. His son will be playing the Alphorn, which will be a very rare occasion to hear it.

A few more surprises are still in the "Bag." From midnight on, after repeated requests from members, the Latin-American Band "Los Tres Flamincoes" will be playing again until early in the morning.

NOTE: As the official part of the 1st. August Celebration starts late, the Committee has decided not to include children and a special "Children's Christmas Party" will be arranged at a later date. Your co-operation will be appreciated. —F.B.M.

Hamilton Swiss Club

The 1st August Celebration will be held on Thursday, August 2nd, in the Riverlea. No Evening will be held in September and the first one after the August Celebration will be held on Sunday, October 7th, in the Riverlea.
