Dr O. Rossetti was in the chair for the election. Mr H. Ittensohn, who had been president for the last two years, declined to be re-elected. He had done a great job and we all wish him "Happy Retirement." The officers elected were.—

President: F. Wehrli.

Vice-President: R. Storz.

Secretary: L. Napp.

Treasurer: H. Scharer.

Committee: W. Hofmann, U. Wolf and H. P. Bowald.

With the ceremony proper to the occasion our new skittle-alley was inaugurated. All those present had a few shots to get the feel of it and then a regular competition, 3 shots each, was organised. Mr N. Matt won with 56 points and Miss A. Oswald was a close second with 52 points. The skittle-alley, constructed by Mr F. Wehrli and some voluntary helpers, stood up to the wear and tear of this first evening very well indeed and the underfelt absorbed most of the noise. Everybody seemed to be very pleased with our new acquisition and thoroughly amused by it. —L.P.
