Mr Meuli returned to Switzerland to see his parents in 1911, and had planned a trip back again in 1939 just before the outbreak of the war.

To his family we extend our deepest sympathy. —J.S.

In the programme there will be the famous "Can-Can" dance and as a special surprise, a "Revue Star from Switzerland" will appear on the stage for this occasion. A first class Continental band will be playing for you all the favourite tunes of Paris and other requests until early in the morning.

Don't miss this dance, the gaily decorated Hall will convey a typical French atmosphere and so will the guests, especially the ladies with that little bit of French touch a la "Irma la Douce!"
