AN APPRECIATION

"Swiss Society News Bulletin" mit neuem Titel.

(Our Standard)

It THAT the Editing Committee are most gratified at the present stage to note that our "Swiss Society News Bulletin" has obtained a large number of subscribers in the United States and Canada and is well received by the Swiss in New Zealand.

The result of the Annual General Meeting of the Swiss Society has been most gratifying to the Editing Committee. The approved increased subscription of £1 has at long last put
our "Helvetia" again on a workable basis.

AN APPRECIATION:

The result of the Annual General Meeting of the Swiss Society has been most gratifying to the Editing Committee. The approved increased subscription of £1 has at long last put
our "Helvetia" again on a workable basis.

The remarks of Dr Weber, that our newsletter was even read in Berne and that no other foreign news bulletin in New Zealand came anywhere near our standard, have given us mere mortals considerable moral support.

We thank our readers and assure them
of our endeavour of continued efforts.

—EDITING COMMITTEE.

It is with pleasure that we record the following from Dr. H. G. Weber, President of the Swiss Society, Berne, Switzerland:
"I am very pleased to receive your new Swiss Society News Bulletin.
It is a good paper and I hope it will be successful.
I am sending you my best regards and hope you will have many subscribers."
