Auckland Swiss Club

KLAUS TAG

ON Sunday, 4th December, the Auckland Swiss Club held a Klaus Tag for the children. Whilst a happy family gathering just ended their picnic lunch there was a sudden cheer as some children sighted Santa coming through the paddocks on the back of a beautifully decorated Landrover. Some of the children shouted with joy while others slowly shyed behind their parents with the fear that Santa might take them away in his sack. A group of children sang some Christmas carols and recited verses, and then Santa slowly went round wishing them all a very Merry Christmas and gave them all a Christmas gift out of his sack. But not all was well, and Santa put a little boy into his empty sack. However his good heart was soon weakened by the pleas of the sad-eyed victim. Soon after Father Christmas was on the way again, farewelled by the happy party.

Activities soon started up again by the Kegelbahn and in the late afternoon the people slowly retired home.
