News of the Colony

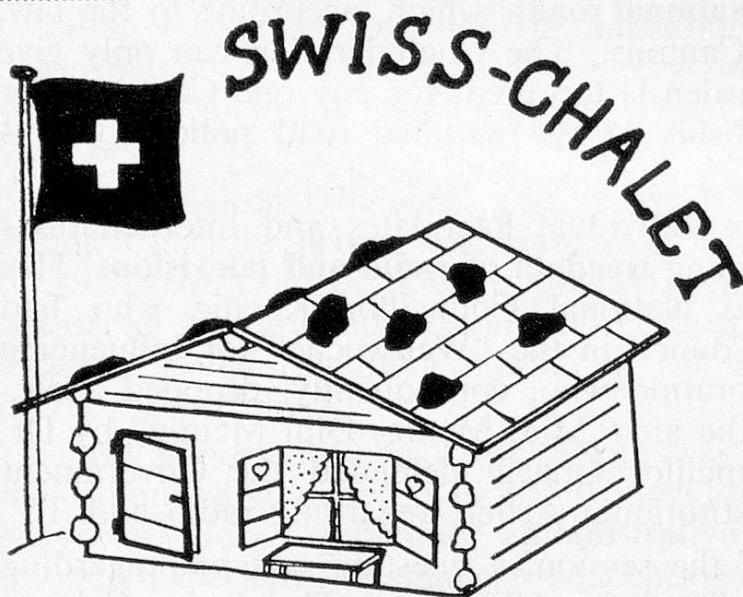

It is with deep regret that we have received the news of Dr. J. P. Weber, Charge d'Affaires, and Mrs Weber's departure from New Zealand. Their four-year stay amongst us has so quickly passed that we find it difficult to believe. With their kindness, knowledge and foremost their personal interest in each compatriot's wellbeing and in all Swiss functions and Clubs they soon gained everyone's respect and admiration.

We sincerely hope that their stay in New Zealand was a pleasant one and that they take with them not only our gratitude but also many loving memories. With our sincere thanks goes our best wishes for their future wellbeing and success in the new post in Saigon.

FUTURE SWISS CLUB?

August 1st Celebrations in Northland

Over a dozen people from around Northland gathered at the home of Mr & Mrs F. Battig, MacLeod's Bay, Whangarei Heads, to celebrate the 1st of August. A recent tape-recording from Switzerland of folk music helped to create atmosphere and provide an incentive for some spirited dancing.

OUTSTANDING BOOKS FOR YOUR SHELF

"25 mal die Schweiz": Your personal interest will be held, as you read about your own canton, treated in considerable detail. It is fascinating to read about the forces at work which produced such jealously guarded cantonal individuality within the unity of the Swiss Confederation.

Author: Fritz Rene Allemann.

Publisher: R. Piper & Co., Prag-Muenchen.

Alt-Bundesrat F. T. Wahlen—"Dem Gewissen verpflichtet": This book is a "must". Reading it, we sense a man of highest integrity, nobility of thought, brilliant judgment, human understanding and a great oratory gift. Given between the years 1940-1965, these speeches include his comprehensive knowledge of the problems of the 5th Switzerland and are of particular interest to us.

Author: F. T. Wahlen.

Publisher: Fretz & Wasmuth Verlag A.G., Zuerich.

These books can be ordered through your local bookshop.

SERENADE

In front of a house with closed windows the village brass band played its pieces.

A stranger asks: "What are you doing here."

"We are serenading the chairman of our village council."

"Your chairman is very impolite, at least he could show himself at the window."

Upon this remark the trombone player stops playing and says: "I can't be everywhere."
