we are fully aware of the fact that a blueprint uniformity of Christmas celebrations does not exist in our homeland.

FONDUE EVENING

About 25 people attended the evening arranged by the Christchurch Swiss Club in the Appenzeller on October 21st. A long table was set up in the Coffee Lounge and on this were placed pots of cheese fondue and hot oil for the meat fondue. Everyone started eating and thoroughly enjoyed themselves. Chilled red and white wine was served during the evening along with potato salad.

Things began to liven up just before 12 o'clock and a few people were dancing and singing. The evening (or morning) concluded finally at 1.30 a.m. and the empty bottles of wine stood at thirteen!

Our sincere thanks go to Wendy and Bon for the loan of their Coffee Lounge and their untiring work in preparing the fondue.
