the sun was breaking through the mist. The crowd had grown since Friday night with the addition of Mr and Mrs Bashford, Mr and Mrs Power, Mr and Mrs Mueller and Mr Bolt and Glenys. Out came the sun and the tennis racquets and ball. We played French cricket for an hour or so and then collapsed. Otto and Glenys went to climb the mountain, and it really was a mountain this time! Lunch was served and it was lovely. During lunch we found out it was Mr Mueller's birthday, so while Mr Moser led him away we rushed around, lit a candle and poured out some beer. As he joined us, we sang "Happy Birthday" to him and toasted him. Later we went for what we were told was a ten-minute drive, which actually took twenty minutes, up to Lake Pearson. It was very cold up there and rough, so we came back to finish taking the tents down and generally packing up. It didn't take long and soon we were on the way home: tired, sunburned and feeling happy that the weather had stayed so fine for us. We have been very lucky with the weather this year for all our activities.

EARLY SWISS SETTLERS

A record in booklet form of the first Swiss in New Zealand has been compiled by Irene Weber de Candolle. Mrs Weber is the wife of Dr Jean Pierre Weber who was the Charge d'Affair of our Embassy in Wellington. She gives a most interesting account of early Swiss settlers starting with John Webber, who accompanied Captain Cook on his last voyage to New Zealand.

The booklet is available from Arnold Biland, Frankton 8 R.D. at a charge of 50 cents per copy which will be donated, as requested by Mrs Weber, to the Swiss Society.
