Auckland Swiss Club

A LITTLE NOTE OF APPRECIATION

Over ten years ago Hans Enzler, with a handful of men, started the Shooting Section in Auckland. They used to shoot with ordinary .22 rabbit rifles, but soon after better rifles were bought and a proper 50m range was built by the members.

Year after year one could see more improvement and more interest by the competitors, but Hans Enzler would not rest just by smallbore shooting; he fought a big battle to get 30 Swiss carbines into this country. A 300m range had to be built then which needed a lot of organising, running around and work.

Today after more than ten years of shooting (five of them with the carbines) we can look back on a most successful past in the Auckland Shooting Section.

As the new Riflemaster I would like, on behalf of all shooting friends and myself, to thank Hans and Sylvia Enzler for the excellent effort and pioneer work to keep the traditional Swiss custom in New Zealand which makes the job for all future Riflemasters so much easier.

K. Hirzel.

Hamilton Swiss Club

VISITING ORCHESTRA WELCOMED

In conjunction with the Hamilton Chamber Music Society our Club recently welcomed the Zurich Chamber Orchestra at their concert in Hamilton.

They were met at the airport and after the performance we joined the Chamber Music Society in entertaining them at the Top of the River Restaurant which was decorated with Swiss flags. Committee members in national dress helped to serve them dinner.

A full capacity house gave the musicians an enthusiastic hearing. The Hamilton critic was full of praise for the exquisite string tone and superb musicianship.

They are nearing the end of their seven-month world tour and will be home later this month. —H.B.

Our first Card Evening this season, which was well attended, was held on Saturday, May 1st at the Eureka Hall.

Christchurch Swiss Club

This year's Annual General Meeting was held at Riccarton House; 24 members attended. Mr Moser welcomed everyone and after the minutes and apologies had been heard, we sat and listened to Mr Moser's rather stirring report on the year's activities. Our finances have risen slightly according to the Financial Report. The Club's new rules were passed after being read to all present. Two motions were passed: (1) that Subscriptions be increased, and (2) that the Club would join the "Link".

Elections were as follows.—

President: Mr A. Moser. Vice-President: Mr K. Gottini. Secretary: Mrs J. Feldmann. Treasurer: Mr M. Nussbaumer. Executive Member: Mr W. Friedauer. Sub-committee: Mrs N. Gottini, Mrs A. Mueller, Mr R. Mueller. Auditor: Mr H. Wagner. Riflemaster: Mr W. Friedauer.

After eight years' service on the Committee of the Club, Mrs E. Miles retired. The Club's appreciation was shown by presenting her with a gift.

Our programme for the year will be a big headache to work out, but we hope to please most of the people this time.

At the conclusion of the meeting we stood for the National Anthem.
