TARANAKI SWISS CLUB

" Great Citizens "

A social evening was held recently at the Tumahu Golf Club to pay tribute to Mr A. "Lou" Schicker who had retired as chairman of the Oxford Dairy Company.

Items were given by Mr Walter Caldwell (tenor) of Stratford, accompanied by Mrs S. Knuckey.

On behalf of the suppliers, the chairman, Mr Des Corbett, presented Mr and Mrs Schicker with a chiming wall clock in appreciation of his services as director since 1961 and chairman for the last seven years.

In referring to Mr Schicker's outstanding contribution to the district, Mr Corbett said: "No man has done more for Okato since he arrived in 1947." Some of the local organisations to prosper as a result of his enormous energy and guiding abilities have been the Hempton Hall, Baths Committee, football and bowling clubs, the Domain Board, Catholic School, veterinarians, Lions Club and Federated Farmers committee.

"Truly Lou is a great citizen," said Mr Corbett.
