WELLINGTON SWISS CLUB

Taranaki Comes to Wellington for the Shoot-out:

And a good job they made of it, too. Thirteen members of the Taranaki Swiss Club (Mr and Mrs Chamberlain, Mr and Mrs Fuglistaller, Mr and Mrs Mathys, Mr and Mrs Nolly, Miss Bernold, Messrs Maechler, Neuburger, Dettling and Kuriger) travelled all the way to Wellington on the weekend of February 22nd/23rd to defend the Cow Bell. They assembled at lunch time on Saturday at Fred Wehrli's place from where they proceeded to our temporary rifle range in the Whiteman's Valley. Their skill and equipment quite floored our competitors who tend to take target shooting a lot less seriously. But that may change, so, Taranaki, look out! To give us a chance, the Taranaki shotput experts stayed home and Wellington duly recorded a win in that discipline. The evening saw everybody gathered on Max Fuhrer's property in the Ohariu Valley for a barbecue dinner and more competitions. Although at this stage, Wellington, in theory at least, still had a chance to win, Lady Luck smiled some more on the Taranaki team and Wellington went down, by a very few points only, to Taranaki in both the skittle and cards competitions.

Sincere and hearty congratulations to Taranaki who one has to admit proved to be the better team. The losers had a lovely time, however, and we hope that the same is true for their guests.

On Sunday, the Wellington Swiss Club held their picnic at Woodlands Park in Waikanae and members were very pleased to have the Taranaki team with them on that day. The tug-of-war, by the way, was won by Wellington, a pity that did not count. The day was sunny and hot and turned out to be a great success in bringing Swiss people from country and city together for a few most convivial hours. Thank you, Taranaki, for coming and being such good sports.

The Committee would also like to thank Mr and Mrs Hans Scherrer for letting us hold our shooting competition on their land and for providing such a fantastic afternoon tea. Mr and Mrs Frick, for supplying the food on Sunday and Mr Hans Tresch for organising the shooting.

—L. Napp.

The Riflemaster of our Club recently met in Whiteman's Valley, where Mr and Mrs Hans Scherer offered us their big place of land for shooting purposes. What a relief for a Riflemaster with no range to go to, lately!

A good handful of members ignored the Wellington weather and found it quite good there, with the numbers of juniors also on the increase.

Very special thanks to Mrs Therese Scherer for her overwhelming hospitality. My appreciation also for support from members who well knew beforehand that they would not make the medal, but came along
