Swiss Town Train Trips

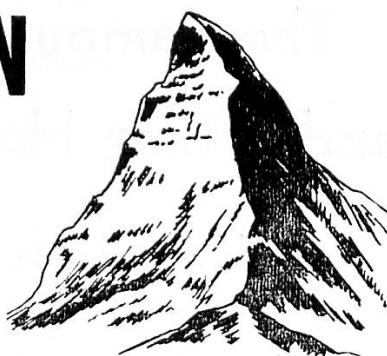

The Swiss Federal Railways have extended their "Swiss town train trips" all-inclusive arrangements started last year. In addition to Berne, Geneva and St. Gall, the list now includes Basel, Chur, Fribourg, Interlaken, Lausanne, Lucerne, Lugano, Schaffhausen and Zurich. The inclusive arrangements are available at weekends (Friday to Monday) until the end of February 1978. They cover two or three overnight stays with breakfast, rail journey from place of residence and a book of privilege vouchers (documentation, free travel on public transport, free entry to museums or night clubs etc.), for use in the town chosen. The arrangements can be booked at railway stations and travel agencies up to 10 a.m. on the Thursday before departure.
