WELCOME TO ALL READERS...

...of the Auckland Swiss Club August 1992 News Letter. Rather than sending the monthly News Letter to all members individually we simply occupied a part of the NEW LOOK HELVETIA. This way we can share the information and news with many more people all around New Zealand. There is a little less space in the Helvetia for our gossip but generally the News Letter will not change very much. Reports, dates, jokes, stories, club member personal ads and letters etc. are still published and will have many more readers. So feel free and use your pen and imagination to help making the Helvetia a colourful and interesting magazine.

At this stage I would like to thank all the members who have helped creating our News Letter so far. Your 'NL' EDITOR

ESI

The ESI Ball has been and gone. To the surprise of many guests we could welcome lots of folks from all around Europe and many other countries inclusive Aotearoa. There were a few organisational problems at the beginning and the Dance floor looked a bit like the Swiss Alps but as the evening went on it turned out to be a very successful event well worth repeating. Over 30 Swiss folks, many in their National Costumes represented our part of Europa and as it appeared surely enjoyed themselves.

We'll keep you informed on ESI news.

SHOOTING DAY, 19 JULY 1992

The weather was good except for some fog in the morning. A lot more people turned up than we expected and some very high scores were shot. Many
