KING OF THE SCHWYZERÖRGELI

Rees Gwerder from Muotathal is undoubtedly the undisputed king of the Schwyzerörgeli, despite his eighty years. His trademarks are his non-stop smoking and his Swiss music. For over 70 years he has played his Schwyzerörgeli at every possible venue throughout the country and has produced eleven long playing record albums. He always smokes while playing, rarely taking his "Brissago" out of his mouth. He learnt to play as a small boy, using in secret his father's Schwyzerörgeli.

FEDERAL VOTINGS FOR 1993

We all know that voting in Switzerland takes place on 4 predetermined dates during each year. The Swiss Embassy in Wellington just advised that the dates for next year's Federal Votings have been set for March 7, June 6, September 26 and November 28. What subjects the citizens will have to vote for on those dates will be advised at a later stage.

FREE BUNS

Swiss bakers are currently distributing to over 1500 schools throughout Switzerland some 200.000 bread buns free of charge to all school children. The purpose is to make children more aware of the nutritious value of bread and through this the bakers hope to increase again the demand for bread throughout the country.

ANIMAL LAWYER

Susy Utziger, 22, is a full time manageress of an institution created by her father: The Animal Ambulance in Zurich. In the course of their work, Susy and her assistants came across so many mistreated and abandoned animals, that she is now looking for an honorary solicitor who would be prepared to track down and take to court the people responsible for the cruelty to these animals. As the job requires an intimate knowledge of the law, Susy thinks the position would most likely suit a retired lawyer.
