APPEAL FROM OUR WELL KNOWN MEMBER:
PROFESSOR HANS-PETER
STOFFEL

Here is a letter of appeal received from Hans-Peter STOFFEL. Any member who could assist him in his research, please contact him as soon as possible:

REQUEST FOR INFORMATION ABOUT MIGRANTS FROM SWITZER-
LAND AND THEIR NEW ZEALAND-
BORN DESCENDANTS

I would be very grateful if you would assist me in the project outlined below.

I would like to collect material on both individual Swiss migrants and their locally-born descendants, as well as on Swiss migration in general to New Zealand from its beginnings to the present day.

The intention is to set up a central body where such material could be kept and be made available to people who wish to engage in research on the history of the Swiss in New Zealand.

Do you have any information or documentation (e.g. copies of various documents, family histories, interesting notes) which is broadly related to the topic of

THE HISTORY OF THE SWISS IN NEW ZEALAND?

Would you be willing to make it available to future researchers?

If so, please send this information to either of the undersigned. If you cannot make copies of the material yourself, you may send in the original which will be copied and then returned to you.

Professor Hans-Peter Stoffel
University of Auckland
Private Bag 92-019
Auckland

I warmly support Professor Stoffel in his research on Swiss immigration to New Zealand and hope that there is a very positive response to his request for information.
