The Yodelclub Bärgglöggli is still producing reports from our Members, even months after it has left New Zealand. Here is a report from the organiser of the tour, Henri Limacher in Tauranga:

The Bärgglöggli tour will be a pleasant memory in many people's mind. As the organiser of the tour, I wish to thank all those people who supported it.

I want to say many thanks to the Ambassador and staff, in particular Mr. Graf for the support and encouragement to bring the tour to a successful conclusion.

A big thanks to the Pro Helvetia for their sponsorship. I want to remember all the people of Tauranga who hosted visitors. Many thanks to Colleen (Limacher) for her untiring work for the last 12 months, Elizabeth Gamperle who donated the pig on the spit, Don and Tony the "Chefs", and Lyn Gillon for his liaison work.

A special thanks to Fritz Battig in Rotorua for his tour guidance and excellent choice of venues.

Many thanks to the Wellington people who took billets, to the Club and Committee for the organisation of a successful concert. A special thanks to Walter Hartmann and his enthusiastic group of helpers.

I want to say thanks to the Taranaki Swiss for their expert organisation of food, drinks, accommodation and venues. A special thanks to the two Ruedis and wives and to Erni and Marlene Forster of Whangamata. I think they surprised themselves how well the farewell concert was organised. Many thanks, and many thanks again for the miles and miles of spaghetti.

I also want to acknowledge the entertainment and friendship the Yodel Club Bärgglöggli and the Wiggertaler Blaskapelle brought to us Swiss abroad.

Yours faithfully      Henri Limacher

HONOURING HANS WALTER SCHNELLER

Recently a concert was held in Zurich in the honour of the late yodelsongs composer Hans Walter Schneller (1893-1982). During the 1940's and 1950's, Hans Walter Schneller composed well over 200 yodelsongs and thus became one of the best and most popular composers in his field. In commemoration of his one hundredth birthday, his widow financed a special concert for over 750 spectators at the Limmat Hotel in Zurich in honour of her late husband.

For this occasion most people turned up in national costumes. The performers came from the three Zurich choirs which Schneller had conducted for over 30 years.

VARIETY IS THE SPICE OF LIFE

If you fly Swissair to Switzerland and Europe we will offer you the variety you are looking for. Take our choice of stopover options for example: Singapore, Bali, Bangkok, Hong Kong, Los Angeles, Toronto, Bombay or even Johannesburg!

If you are looking for something more varied again for a little extra you can travel via New York, Boston, Chicago, Atlanta or on the other side of the world how about Taipei, Seoul, Beijing, Manila or Delhi?

When you get to Zurich, Geneva or Basel we will give you a FREE RETURN ticket to any one of these cities: Amsterdam, Berlin, Birmingham, Brussels, Copenhagen, Dusseldorf, Frankfurt, Genoa, Hamburg, Hannover, London, Lyon, Manchester, Marseilles, Milan, Munich, Nice, Paris, Rome, Stuttgart, Turin or Vienna. What's more you can take this FREE trip whenever you want whilst you are in Switzerland!

Want to stay in Zurich or Geneva on a stopover package? Our rates start at Swiss Francs 95 per person and include train transfers, breakfast, local city transport, a sightseeing tour and a welcome drink.

If you need to go elsewhere in Switzerland we can sell you a return train ticket ANYWHERE RETURN from your airport arrival point for as little as Swiss Francs 90. For a small charge you can even check in your bags all the way to your destination from New Zealand!

Who offers you this variety? Only Swissair of course. Spoil yourself, pay a little bit more and get a lot more in return. Our airfares start at $2699 return or $1499 one way to either Zurich, Geneva or Basel.
