DO YOU RECOGNISE HIM?

The man with the famous nose and strong calves that brought him fame and fortune: Ferdy Kübler, the "Ferdy National" who was everybody's cycling hero in his time of glory.

Ferdy reckons his legs took him 17 times around the world on his bike, something like 700.000 Km. He has been riding bikes for the past 61 years, of which 16 years as a professional. He participated in 2000 races and won 400 of them.

Even today, at the age of 74, Ferdy is still full of enthusiasm about his favourite sport. Although he now moves around more often in his dreamcar, a Mercedes 600 SL Coupé, and plays golf for relaxation, he still gets back on his bike now and again for a good old spin.

DHL GOES GREEN

DHL Geneva is the first worldwide express courier service company to use electromobiles. The Fiat Panda Elettra will be used for inner-city business and has a daily range of 70 km. It emits no exhaust, little noise and its batteries can be charged overnight in the normal 220 volt household socket. DHL plans to employ the Panda in other Swiss cities.

JUGGLER FESTIVAL

This year Suhr (Aargau) became for a couple of days Switzerland's centre for jugglers. The festival, the 7th of its kind, attracted hundreds of jugglers of both sexes, both from Switzerland and from foreign countries. It was a very colourful festival of professional and amateur jugglers, including many street buskers whose tricks and feats attracted a large and appreciative crowd of onlookers.
