TIME IS MONEY

The slogan also applies to the Swiss Federal Councillors who never want to lose a minute of work even when travelling to foreign countries. For this reason the Federal Council acquired a 12 seater Mystère Falcon 900 jet aircraft which not only allows its Councillors and their wives to travel in comfort, but also provides them with a flying meeting room.

Part of the jet aircraft is set aside as a meeting room where Councillors can discuss business with their Department Heads during the flight.

ANIMAL INSURANCE

In Switzerland, the land of insurances, where everybody and everything is insured, animals are no exception. You can insure your pets or farm animals against accidents, illnesses and death. The Swiss insurance companies pay out an average of 5 million SFR per year under such insurances. Yearly insurance premiums can vary between SFR 175 and SFR 990 for a horse, between SFR 60 and SFR 560 for a dog and between SFR 50 and SFR 280 for a cat.

In the front of the aircraft, wives and "non-working" passengers can relax in first class comfort.

FREE LISTINGS

Many thanks to all the Swiss people who have sent in their coupons for a free listing in the Helvetia. Since we printed that article, the Swiss Society Committee has decided to go ahead with the production of a separate address booklet of all Swiss Society Members which will also include a business section. Accordingly, all entries sent to the Editor will now be printed in this new booklet, which will be an advantage because this address booklet will probably stay around longer in your homes than an issue of the Helvetia magazine.

The new address booklet is due to be released together with the next Helvetia issue in November.
