scription to be $25.00 per year per family or per single member.

There was a short discussion concerning the possibility of having more than ten issues but it was pointed out that this could not be done without increasing the price of the subscription even more.

A motion was put that the subscription be increased to $27.50 for 11 issues a year. This was moved by Max Fuhrer and seconded by Maya Beddie-Geiser.

A vote was held on this motion which was lost by a significant majority.

The original motion was then put to the floor. Moved by Hans Fitzi, seconded by Marianne Benkert. The motion passed with two against.
