Arrows or bowls, that is now the question at the Frohhof in Wetzikon.

RESTAURANT'S NEW ATTRACTION

The restaurant Frohhof in Wetzikon (ZH) has come up with a novel idea: indoor archery in a bowling alley.

Archery is a sport which has seen a great revival in Switzerland over the past few years. However, not everyone who likes to play this sport wants to join an archery club, so the restaurant Frohhof offers its new facilities to anyone who wants to come along.

The restaurant's bowling alley can be transformed very quickly into an archery range as the picture shows. Whether archery or bowling is being played in the alley depends on the number of guests who have booked in advance for either sport. Archers can bring their own equipment or they can hire it on the spot. As you can see, the bowls themselves also become handy receptacles to store surplus arrows. By pure chance, the 18 m bowling alley happened to have the exact measurement requirements for indoor archery stands so no structural changes were necessary at all.
