PIC NIC

It has been a most enjoyable day with BBQ steaks and sausages delicious salads, nussgipfels, schnecken, vogelnester, Berliner pfannkuchen and bread from the Swiss bakery.

The afternoon was enhanced by a few great songs by our Yodellers and the alphorn always sounds especially nice up at the farm. Congratulations to all the lucky ones who won prizes in the raffle or in the many games. Thanks to the committee for a great effort and to all the helpers for working so hard.

SHOOTING

Dear Shooting Comrade,

The new shooting season has begun and the following dates have been chosen for the 1997 program:

02 March 97: Feldschiessen Program

13 April 97: Swiss Society 50m Small Bore Programm

25 May 97: Ausland and Einzel-Wett-Schiessen Program

08 June 97: Hamilton Shooting Day.

All shooting starts at 9.00am sharp.

We hope that these dates fit into your 1997 agenda as in choosing them, we stayed clear of any public holiday.

Please stick this note on your "Fridge, Dashboard, Bedside Table" or wherever is most convenient but do not forget to come. We want to see you there.

If you know someone keen in the Swiss Shooting Tradition, please feel free to bring them along. We all can do with some new blood.

THE COMMITTEE

Henry Werffeli - Riflemaster. Mobile 021 976 467

Virginia Amstutz - Secretary. Ph. 09 631 5243 (daytime) Ph 09 636 9357 (home)

P.S. The medals distribution will take place at the farm on all shooting dates.

ANNUAL PICNIC HELD ON FEBRUARY 9, 1997

The day started off on a very dour note... overcast and misty. We all hoped that an improvement was imminent with 80kgs of Bratwurst and Cervelats on hand... We wanted people! Finally by 11.00am the sun started to peep through and we soon had a very good crowd... Thankfully. The sausages were soon on the barbecues and we had a little trouble keeping up for a short time. Everyone thought they were excellent and soon we had a roaring trade with beer, wine, non-alcoholic refreshments, ice-creams and chips.... at times we had difficulties in keeping up!!

The highlight of the day for most people was the Schwingen, from adults to midgets... What a delight to watch. Many thanks to Nic and his helpers for organising and assisting with this popular event. Our grateful thanks to all the sponsors, one even from Wellington (thanks Walter for the spirit-level... it was most appreciated). It was great to see so many people watching, many especially enjoying the children's Schwingen. Keep it up kids!! All participants seemed to enjoy themselves and great sportsmanship prevailed.

Winner of the cup was Peter Bigler from Switzerland with our own Nicol Ruchti the runner-up... must have learnt something from dad, eh? Third was Tim Bishop... congratulations too, Tim. In the juniors Janick Ruchti (not another one!) prevailed over Berni Dudli and in the midgets, Sami Werder won against Sven Ruchti (what... another one!!). Congratulations to all the competitors. We look forward to seeing you next year.

A lolly scramble and various children's activities were organised and well supported. The two soccer tables were used all day... a great investment for the club.

A superb tombola had been organised and many thanks must go to the organisers and to those who sold all the tickets... well done! There were some wonderful prizes and tickets sold like hot cakes. All committee members enjoyed the educational experience of rolling all the tickets and putting them in small pieces of straws. Charlie was a very quick learner... he soon realised that placing the rolled paper in the straws was easier than rolling the paper!! Very alert, our Charlie!!

Many people stayed for tea, which was really appreciated... and disappeared in no time at all!!

The music was going all day...many thanks to Zeno and Peter for the wonderful entertainment.... which carried on through the evening. Many people thoroughly enjoyed dancing...and boy... did Walter sweat it out!! So did some oth-

Erwin Hebler and Kim Doinz ready to do battle under the watchful eye of Paul Ruchti. You did a great job, Paul.

Sami Werder and Berni Dudli.. you shouldn't lie down on the job, Berni!!

WELLINGTON SWISS CLUB

FORTHCOMING EVENTS

22 March: Bicultural Event. We shall visit the Porirua Bone Carver. Start 2pm. Ring Maya (478 2324) for details.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to Margot and Greg Ross-Pfister on the birth of their daughter Sarah, born 7 February 1997. A new sister for Jeremy. Best wishes to the four of them from the Wellington Swiss Club.

Final of the seniors between Peter Bigler and Nicol Ruchti.

Sami Werder, winner of the midgets.

EMIGRATION

More and more Swiss people are emigrating to foreign lands. Whilst in the old days, emigrants were mainly adventurers or young people seeking to start a new life and career in a foreign place, the new wave of emigrants comes now more and more from well established people who are looking for better investment opportunities or from people well in their fifties who are planning for an early retirement and want to enjoy the rest of their lives in a better financial and climatic environment.

Over the past 15 years, an average of 30,000 Swiss left their homeland every year. This number is steadily increasing whilst at the same time, the number of Swiss returning home permanently is going down all the time mainly because it has become almost impossible for Swiss returning from abroad to re-establish themselves in Switzerland, let alone find a job.

With over 540,000 Swiss living outside Switzerland, the Swiss abroad are now equal in numbers to the 5th most populated canton of Switzerland.

TOP SWISS FIRMS

Every year statistics are produced to list the 200 most important and best performing Swiss companies.

Once again Nestlé from Vevey comes up tops with the largest turnover (about 57 billion SFR), the largest cash flow and the biggest number of staff (over 220,000 worldwide).

The second largest company is the far less known Metro from Zug with some 55 billion SFR turnover and 180,000 staff worldwide.

Third is ABB (Asea Brown Boveri) and fourth a rather little known company from Baar called Glencoe International.

Then we get into a whole row of well known household names such as Ciba-Geigy, Migros, Sandoz, PTT, La Roche, Kraft Jacobs-Suchard, Coop and Holderbank. Swissair comes in 15th position followed by the SBB (17th), Danzas and Sulzer whilst Schindler has lifted itself up to position 25.

Lower down you find Kuoni (37), Landis & Gyr (38), Merkur (39), Rieter (50), Rolex (51), Jelmoli (53), Von Roll (60), Saurer (63), Globus (67), Denner (71), Ringier (72), Zellweger (102), Feldschlösschen (107), Bally (110), Mövenpick (117) and Lindt & Sprüngli (118).

Amongst the 20 companies with the highest turnover abroad, you will find in that order Nestlé, Ciba-Geigy, Sandoz, La Roche, Kraft Jacobs-Suchard and Holderbank.

Largest employers abroad are again Nestlé, ABB (Asea Brown Boveri), Ciba-Geigy, Sandoz, La Roche and Holderbank.

Only when it comes to net profit did Nestlé get beaten for the first time to second place by the smallest of the three Basle pharmaceutical companies, La Roche (3.3 billion SFR profit) which shows a far better profit margin than its two competitors Ciba-Geigy (3) and Sandoz (4). The Swiss Banks start appearing here with the Union Bank of Switzerland (5), Credit Suisse (8) and Swiss Bank Corporation (9).

If you are interested to know where your favourite Swiss Bank stands, here is the list in order of importance:

- 1) Union Bank of Switzerland (UBS) with assets worth in excess of 386 billion SFR.
- 2) Swiss Bank Corporation
- 3) Credit Suisse
- 4) Zürcher Volksbank
- 5) Volksbank
- 6) Banque Cantonale Vaudoise
- 7) Berner Kantonalbank
- 8) St. Gallische Kantonalbank
- 9) Luzerner Kantonalbank
- 10) Banque Cantonale de Genève
- 11) Bank Leu
- 12) Thurgauer Kantonalbank
- 13) Union Bancaire Privée
- 14) Basellandschaftliche Kantonalbank
- 15) Migros Bank
- 16) Raiffeisen Zentralbank
- 17) Neue Aargauer Bank
- 18) Graubündner Kantonalbank
