22 June: Cards at 1.15pm

We held our first card afternoon on 13 April. Attendance was a little down, so was the noise!! What does that mean for the ones that were not here? Just kidding! The order of merit in Jassen was 1st Rosa Monti, 2nd Jürg from Switzerland with the long name..., 3rd Marianne Benkert (who had the clippers! What does that tell you?!!) and in Euchre 1st Berta Zimmermann, 2nd John Hermann. The booby in Jassen went to Paul Zimmermann and in Euchre to Berta Kuriger. Bad luck folks... Wish you better cards or luck next time. The raffle was won by Berta Zimmermann... must have been your lucky day!! Well done.

Over the last few weeks, Karabiner shooting has been flavour of the month, with a good attendance. Spoke to a few young Swiss tourists who were proud to be able to shoot the Oblig. Bundesprogramm in New Zealand. They thought our facilities were wonderful. Great to get some positive feedback. Wish all our shooters all the best in achieving good results to go with last year's outstanding record. Keep it up.

WELLINGTON SWISS CLUB

NEWS FROM THE ABSOLUTELY POSITIVELY WELLINGTON SWISS CLUB

The AGM was held on the 12th of April, where an enthusiastic new committee was elected. Members voted to use club funds to support celebrations later this year: the club will have its 40th birthday. At the conclusion of the meeting, most stayed on to compete for the Fritz Adam's Cup. The smiling and beaming Franz Rempfler won first prize. Congratulations, Franz!

The new Committee:

President:	Maya Beddie-Geiser
Vice President:	Christine Hughes
Treasurer:	Ruth Messmer
Secretary:	Michele Köppel-Schneider
Members:	Elisabeth Hynes
	Denise Nassenstein
	Peter Fischer

Skittle Master:	Max Fuhrer
Rifle Master:	Roland Schütz
Deputy Rifle Master:	Hans Glauser
Walking Club
Organizer:	Franz Schneider

A great thank you to the retiring committee members Trudi Brühlmann, Rosemarie McKinney and Roland Schütz for a job splendidly done.

Our last activity in the past club year was a visit to Porirua East's Brandon Intermediate School. Paul McKendrey was the Tutor who introduced us to bone carving - a skill which was for most of us totally new. The material was cow bone which has been soaked in Janola. We learned to use both hand tools and electrical machines. It gave us great pleasure to create in a very short time a fish hook - a symbol of ancient times. The young people were surprised what master pieces can be created with a little bit of help by professionals!

TWO WORLD CHAMPIONS ON ONE BIKE

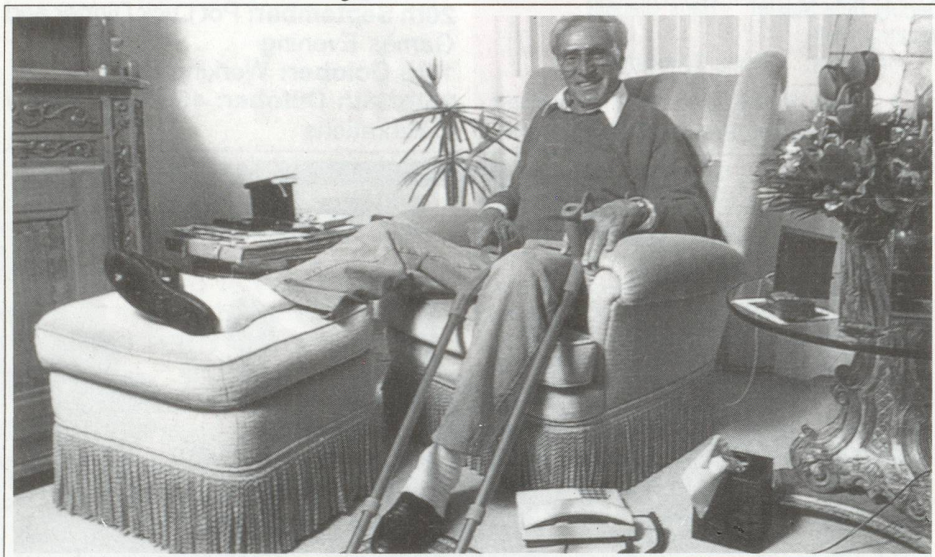

The two World Champions in tandem. Of course Alex Zülle is in front.

When the Swiss Alex Zülle recently became World Champion cyclist in the time trial, the first to congratulate him on his success was no other than Ferdy Kübler who had won the same trophy some 45 years ago in Varese, Italy.

Despite the age difference, the two are now great friends to the point where they even share the same bike as the picture shows.

Since this picture was taken, Ferdy Kübler has been involved in an accident. While still road cycling at the age of 77, Ferdy was hit by a car and thrown off his bike. Unbelievably he was only severely bruised but suffered no fractures. He is now nursing a swollen and very painful hip forcing him to walk on crutches. Apart from that, he is happy to still be alive.

Ferdy recuperating in his home after his road accident.

INSURANCE AND ACCIDENT COMPENSATION TOTALLY OFF THE RAIL.

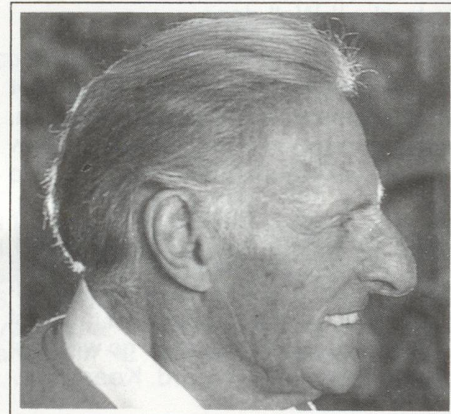

If you think that insurance and accident compensation rules have gone totally mad in New Zealand, you may find some small consolation in the fact that the same is happening in Switzerland. To prove that things are not much better in Switzerland, here is the following story.

A woman was badly bitten by a dog and, needing treatment, sent all her medical bills to the owner of the dog who promptly passed them on to his third party insurance.

The third party insurance kindly sent all the bills back to the dog-bitten woman on the grounds that she should send them to her own medical insurance which, if it chose to do so, could in return claim the costs back from the dog owner's third party insurance.

Because the total amount involved was not very considerable, the woman's medical insurance decided not to take action against the third party insurance. It kindly paid the bills for the woman but charged her not only the excess but also deprived her of her no-claim bonus whilst the dog owner, of course, got away scot-free.

You may remember a few years ago in New Zealand when a "professional" burglar, who had been convicted and sent to prison, tried to escape and, upon jumping over the prison wall, broke his foot. Accident Compensation paid him $30,000 in compensation on the grounds that he had lost his ability to exercise his chosen (and you might say illegal) profession. On the other hand, the victims of his burglaries never received any compensation for their losses.

And recently a truck driver, with several drunk and drive charges behind him, who killed several people in a road accident while driving his truck in a drunken state, has already received $20,000 in accident compensation and is due for a further $50,000 pay-out whilst the families of his victims have received no compensation whatsoever.
