YOUR CORNER

Yes, time flies and some of us have to start thinking about those overseas Christmas mail deadlines. They are looming not too far away. A perfect opportunity to share an idea, of one of our avid readers from Eastbourne, Wellington, with all of you.

MAKE YOUR OWN CHRISTMAS CARDS!

Buy a big sheet of drawing paper, cut to size, glue a bit of Christmas ribbon on, stick a few self adhesive stars over it or buy a few centimetres of Christmas fabric, cut into pointed triangles, glue on card, add bits of small red or yellow ribbon or felt as candles.

We were very impressed with this effective but simple, achievable, personal Christmas greeting. -

Have fun making your own cards.

And please keep the letters coming, we enjoy hearing from you

Regards

Trudy and Doris
