Past Events

Fondue Evening - 4th July

The evening was a great success with fondue pots steaming, swiss background music, and the clinking of glasses. You would never have thought you were in New Zealand at all, as the Chalet-look of Rene's restaurant in Cass Bay was more like somewhere in the Berner Oberland!

A good night was enjoyed by all.

First August Celebration

Another enjoyable event which went very well and people seemed quite reluctant to go home. Herr Franz Schneider from the Wellington Embassy joined our celebrations, proving to the rest of New Zealand that we are part of the country. The traditional menu consisted of Basler Mehlsuppe, Raclette with potato and salads, followed by pavlova (very Swiss!) and fruit salad, finishing with tea, and coffee with home-made Schnapps. Thank you to all those who made the evening run smoothly.

resident outside of New Zealand, so it was a delight to read that the First of August was also being celebrated in Samoa, complete with the traditional bonfire!!

Marco also wrote in his letter that a visit or correspondence from any Society members would be most welcome. (Don't all go at once!!) For anyone who wishes to contact him, call me for further information.

Second Attempt at UN Membership

Article provided by Heinz Leuenberger

Twelve years after Swiss voters overwhelmingly rejected joining the UN, the timing now seems to be on cue for trying again.

The Blockade between East and West, with its associated conflicts, is now over. Today, the Security Council is primarily involved in prevention; imposition of sanctions; and occasionally, limited military actions. And with the problems of globalisation in economic, political, environmental and social areas, it is felt that many matters can no longer be dealt with entirely at a national level.

According to the Minister of Foreign Affairs, Mr Flavio Cotti, Switzerland's foreign policies of the 1990's are close to being identical with those of the UN. The goals in the peace, human rights, and environment policies, as well as in humanitarian aid, would be much better served by a world encompassing organisation, rather than by continuing alone.

The question of neutrality, the main barrier for the 76% NO vote in 1986, now seems to be "agreeable". And as a full member, apart from the compulsory dues, Switzerland would, under certain circumstances, have to provide its armed forces to re-establish democracy and to safeguard humanitarian help. It would also be required to uphold any economic sanctions imposed by the Security Council; and all these actions are already presently being fulfilled on a voluntary basis. The country

NEWS OF SOCIETY MEMBERS

My President's message this month quotes the number of "Society-only" members, at the time of writing, as 106, however this has since increased to 107. On 11 August, the Society gained its first non-New Ze-land resident member, and I would like to warmly welcome Mr Marco Kappenberger, who lives in Western Samoa. I am told that there are a number of Swiss living in Samoa, as well as on other South Pacific Islands, creating even the possibility of forming a new "Off-Shore" Club!!
Most definitely though, with the assistance of our new member, I will be doing my best to increase numbers in this yet "untapped" region. I must admit that I never really thought about these Swiss citizens would in no way be obliged to take part in confrontational military actions under the UN banner (eg. Iraq / Iran conflict).

Last year, Switzerland paid a total of Sfr470 million to the United Nations, making it one of the "most important payers". Reliable calculations show that membership would increase this expenditure by 'only' a further amount of Sfr36 million. On the other hand, this money is returned to Switzerland five to six-fold. UN activities support the annual Geneva economy by Sfr2½ - 3 billion. Presently, Geneva is still the most important location in Europe, but opposition is becoming very acute. At the same time Switzerland's observer status is now only marginal. Of the 17 observer nations which existed at the beginning of 1948, only one other, the Vatican City, still remains. The Federal Council stresses the point that at present the country is already performing the more important duties on a voluntary basis, but forfeits the most important right - to be able to vote and elect as a member in UNO General Assembly.

Summary of "ONE WAY TICKET TO NEW ZEALAND"

MA -thesis - Auckland 1998
by HELEN BAUMER

1. Part; with permission to print from Helen Baumer.

The aim of my research was to fill in some of the gaps relating to migration since the Second World War, in particular the reasons for this migration, the travel experiences of the Swiss who migrated, and the degree of integration of Swiss New Zealanders into their adopted country. To this end I conducted 50 interviews with Swiss living in the Auckland, Waikato and Coromandel areas.

Swiss contact with New Zealand date back two centuries, to 1777. The first Swiss to set foot in both Australia and New Zealand was almost certainly a man called John Webber, whose father was a Wäber from Berne.

Although every care has been taken to ensure that accurate points and placings have been printed, as well as correct spelling of names, we apologise for any errors which may be found.

A big "Thank You" to all competitors for taking part in the competitions, and congratulations to all the medal winners. This year we have two "treble" winners - Henry Werffeli from Auckland and Bert Flühler from Hamilton. It's also encouraging to see some junior members involved in medal competitions, and hopefully next year we'll see even more.

Society Riflemaster,

Peter Rust
