February 1999

Do you know Swiss Culture ?

This month we show a national costume reserved for festivals and special feast days. It is made of various materials like silk, velvet and gold brocade. The decore jewellery is made of silver filigree and the ornamental tuft is made of horse hair. - This costume belongs to one of the Cantons in central Switzerland whose Capital has the same name as the Canton. The Capital City which is very well known as a tourist destination boasts a new much acclaimed concert hall. The population of this Canton is approx. 312,000 and there are 107 independent communities (Gemeinden) within its boundaries. The highest point is the 'Brienzer Rothorn' mountain of 2350m. and the lowest point is the river 'Reuss' with an altitude of only 406 m.
