HELVETIA

Do you know Swiss Culture ?

This month we show a national costume worn for Sundays or festive days by 'Ladies of the city' in one of the half-Cantons. Situated strategically on the border with Germany and France, this half-Canton consists of the Capital-City with the same name. There are approx. 191,000 inhabitants well known for their love of special carnival-traditions and they are recognisable for speaking a very exotic Swiss dialect. The highest elevation within this City-Canton is called St. Chrischona with 522m, and the lowest point is the river Rhein with an elevation of 248 m. The flag of this Canton shows a bishop's crook in black and this Canton joined the Swiss federation in 1501.

The Winner of this competition will receive a $ 10.- voucher, and will be announced in the following issue of HELVETIA. If there are a number of correct answers there will be a draw. The judges decision is final and no correspondence will be entered into.

- Please send your answer printed clearly together with your name and address on the back of an envelope, to; HELVETIA competition, P.O. Box 4035, Hamilton, by the 15th of the month.
