A Response to August's Editorial

My name is Heidi Lotti Buchmann and I was born at home on my parents farm 'Leerueti' in Gossau ZH., Switzerland.

- We left 'CH' five years ago and now we live in Aka Aka. - I am seven years old and my brother Ueli is ten years old. Last winter we spent ten weeks in 'CH'.

- Mum took me to 'Mövenpick-Heidi-land' for lunch. At the door there was a stuffed goat and Mum took a photo of me. At night we stayed at Bad Ragaz. The next day we went to Maienfeld and visited 'Heidihaus'.

Mum bought me a 'Heidi-Bastel-Bogen' and Postcards of Heidi, Peter and Almöhi.

- I was happy to see my grandparents

Mad cow case in France from Swiss-born animal

France has reported a new case of mad cow disease, or BSE, involving an animal imported from Switzerland. The agriculture ministry said the cow was brought into the country three years ago, just before a ban on Swiss imports came into force.

It's the first known case of BSE from an imported animal and the seventeenth altogether this year in France.
