HELVETIA

Do you know the name of this Swiss tourist destination ?

This delightful town in western Switzerland bears the same name as the Canton of which it is the Capital. It is situated on the lake with the same name amongst vineyards at the foothills of the Jura. Strictly and freely translated it's French language name consists of 2 words connected, meaning 'Newcastle'. Approaching from the lake, the view of the town is dominated by the castle and the collegiate church (both built in Romanesque and early - Gothic style. The name of this town is used in conjunction with the description of the famous pendulum clock treasured by the Swiss and exported to many countries of the world.

The Winner of this competition will receive a $ 10.- voucher, and will be announced in the following issue of HELVETIA. If there are a number of correct answers there will be a draw. The judges decision is final and no correspondence will be entered into.
