Do you know the name of this Swiss tourist destination ?

The capital of the bi-lingual Canton of Grisons (Graubünden), where the unique Romansch language is still spoken, spans back over many centuries of settlement and history. The 800 year old romanesque "Cathedral of the Assumption" in the Old Town is an ageless reminder of mediaeval times, and to this day the City has remained a bishop's seat.

Surrounded by the Alps, and situated in a valley ca. 700m above sea level, the warm winds nurture the locally grown Pinot Noir grapes to full maturity.

In the winter months, the famous ski resorts of Arosa, Davos, Flims-Laax-Falera and Lenzerheide are close by. But this City, and the surrounding mountains can be enjoyed at any time of the year thanks to the bold engineering of the Rhaetian Railway network and the famous Bernina and Glacier Express trains.
