Your Corner...

This month, we have competition for our younger readers of school age - children as well as teenagers - a Quiz about Switzerland.

Use as many sources as you can - eg. books, atlas, Helvetia and Swiss Revue magazines, etc. to find the answers to as many questions as you can. (Parents - encourage your children to find the answers themselves, perhaps giving them clues where to look!)

Competition entries will be in three age Categories:

- 1 - up to Year 6 (primary school)
- 2 - Years 7 - 9 (Forms 1 - 3)
- 3 - Year 10 and over (from Form 4)

There will be prizes for the highest score in each category, as well as consolation prizes to reward participation. So, come on kids, and see how much you can find out and learn about Switzerland!

Write your answers to the questions (don't forget to number them), clearly on a sheet of paper and include your name, address, age, and school class.

Send your reply to:

Quiz on Switzerland

P O Box 4035
Hamilton East

to reach us by 15th October, 2000.

We look forward to receiving lots of entries. Good luck!

Adults - have a go too, and test your own general knowledge!

(Answers will be in the next issue.)

Another Swiss Specialty

Croûtes au Fromage

(from the Romandie - French speaking part of Switzerland)

- put 8 big slices of white bread on an oven tray and grill both sides
- drizzle 50-100ml white wine over the bread slices
- combine 400gr grated cheese and 2 tablespoons flour
- mix together 2 eggs, 150ml white wine, and freshly grated pepper.

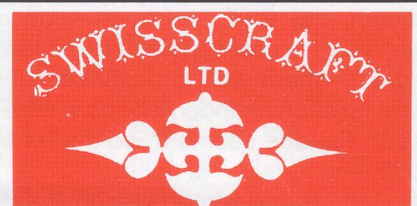

Combine this together with the cheese mixture and spread evenly on each slice of grilled bread.

Bake for 10 minutes at 250°C on bottom grill in oven.

Serve hot with salad, and enjoy a beer or glass of white wine with it.

Tips - use toasted bread

- instead of baking croûtons, put under grill - check frequently.
