Do you know the name of this Swiss holiday destination?

This is the Capital City of Canton of Vaud and is situated in the middle of the northern shore of Lake Geneva. It is a lively centre of French speaking Switzerland and can be reached by road, rail or lake-steamer. In 1994 this City of approx. 125,000 inhabitants was declared the Capital of the Olympic movement, although the International Olympic Committee has had its seat in the city since 1915. The Olympic Museum in Ouchy is a favourite destination for visitors from all over the world. 47 Hotels offer some 5000 beds in all and the region this city is famous for boasts some exquisite cuisines and with some of the country's best vineyards almost outside the door, a fine accompanying wine won't be much of a problem either. The well known Cathedral 'Notre Dame' dates back to the year 1232 and stands on monumental foundations dating back to Roman times.

The Winner of this competition will receive a $ 10.- voucher, and will be announced in the following issue of HELVETIA. If there are a number of correct answers there will be a draw. The judges decision is final and no correspondence will be entered into.
