President's Report

Well, it looks like winter is approaching .... fast .... we have had the first few frosts and Mt Egmont had a good dumping of snow at the end of April. However, with the warm rain we have had recently, the snow has now disappeared!!! Not good for those that wanted to do some early skiing!!! We're still getting a few frosts but are enjoying some warm days!!! Long may that last!!! I don't think so. Time to start lighting those fires and enjoying the warmth with a good game of cards!!!

Must fly ... still preparing a few items for the AGM in June. The editing team is looking forward to seeing as many of you as possible at Queen's Birthday weekend in Hamilton.

Once again, the Taranaki Swiss Club has organised a bus, so about 35 of us will be invading Hamilton ... I'm sure we won't be as unruly as the "Barmy Army" that accompanies the Lions Rugby Team on its' travels!!! So don't be frightened!!!

See you then

Regards

Marianne

Poems

Have Courage

When storms come upon you
Have courage
Take comfort in the knowledge
The sun will shine again.

When strong winds hold you back
Take courage
Take comfort in the knowledge
The sun will shine again.

When dark clouds gather around you
Take courage
Take comfort in the knowledge
The sun will shine again.

When lightning strikes and thunder rumbles
Take courage
Take comfort in the knowledge
The sun will shine again.

The sun will shine again.
Have courage
The sun will shine again.

Time

Twisted and gnarled like a mangrove root over time.

The torment of my mind has held me captive for more years than I can remember.

Time to let go
Time to unwind
Time to heal
Time to love
Time to be loved
Time to love myself

Slowly, slowly, my thoughts unravel, leaving me with no anger, no guilt, no hatred.

Filling me with forgiveness, hope and contentment.

Knowing I have been true to myself.

Just A Child

I came home from school today,
the house is cold and bare.
I wanted you to see my picture
but there is no-one there.
You took a job because you said
that we were in a fix
Mum, I'm only six.

I came home from school today,
the house was cold and bare.
My knee was hurt, I needed love,
but there was no-one there.
So me and Joe, he's my mate,
drank beer from daddy's crate.
You came home and belted me
Mum, I'm only eight.

I came home from school today,
the house was cold and bare.
"Hey mum, I'm captain of the team,"
but there was no-one there.
So me and Joe and his friend Ron had a smoke behind the shed.
Then we broke into the neighbour's house
Mum, I'm only ten.

I came home from school today,
the house was cold and bare.
I'm hooked on dope and really sick,
but still there's no-one there.
"Someone help me please," I cry
"I've overdosed ... is this goodbye?"
Mum, I'm only fourteen.
Mum, I'm far too young to die.
