Switzerland of looking at ways to grant you a chance to vote for your own representatives in the Federal Parliament!

So all of you, who still haven't decided: I do have some registration documents right here with me. Fill them in, return them to the embassy and we will forward them to your community of choice in Switzerland. There is no real reason to abstain any longer! And all you who did register now or in the past: congratulations! You did the right thing!

4b: Swiss Solidarityfoundation

As you know, there is the "Ausland-Schweizerorganisation", providing a great number of interesting services to all of you, it edits the "Swiss Revue" and also is responsible for Soliswiss, the Cooperative Society Solidarity Fund for Swiss Nationals Abroad. You can become a member for a small amount, and they offer you insurance in a many fields and now also an investment fund run by Raiffeisen Bank in St. Gallen. So if any of you would like to get more information, please contact us at the embassy or visit their homepage www.soliswiss.ch

4c Annual Congress of the Swiss Abroad

Every year the Congress of the Swiss Abroad takes place some time in the European summer. This year it will take place in Geneva from August 17 to 19. This is a great opportunity for the Swiss abroad to make their voice heard and it is taken very seriously by our government. It goes without saying, that there is always a Swiss Federal Councillor addressing the conference with a speech and the Swiss media always report on it quite extensively. New Zealand was very lucky to be represented there for many years by Heinz Leuenberger from Hamilton, who did great honour to all of you. I think it is only fair to use this opportunity and express our thanks to Heinz for his engagement and also to hope that he will be able to carry out that role for many years to come. Thank you very much Heinz!

However, this year unfortunately, Heinz told me that he will not be able to travel to Switzerland, neither will be his two deputies. That is most unfortunate, since such a large and proud community of Swiss such as the one from NZ will not be represented. For that reason I think it to be in your interest to be represented regularly in the future, even if Heinz can not make it. I would therefore suggest, that the committees would turn their attention to this situation and nominate members of their clubs from which then people could be chosen, that are willing and able to participate if Heinz can not be there. I leave that proposal with the presidency to find a viable solution quickly, hopefully for this year, if not for the years to come.

4d) Superannuation

Now, Ladies and Gentleman, I know of course that the issue of the NZ-Superannuation fund and its relationship with the Swiss AHV is at an unsatisfactory stage for many of you. I can only tell you, that the problem has been recognised as far as we are concerned and we will try to do as much as we can to remedy the situation. Once again, as I said last year: The legal situation is clear, under NZ-law as it stands all the beneficiaries of all countries are in the same situation, there is no discrimination against the Swiss. But we do think that your grievances do merit our attention and consequently we are willing to talk to the NZ authorities to see how that situation can be improved.

4e) Christchurch

Last but not least: When I paid my visit to the Swiss Club in Christchurch, I told them that I would very much like to see them back in the fold of the Swiss Association of NZ as soon as possible. In the ensuing discussion there were a lot of positive noises. They then decided, that they needed to discuss this in the committee and among themselves and would come back to me later on. I am hopeful, that in the not too distant future, I will be able to welcome our fellow citizens from the Canterbury area to our AGMs and our get-togethers among friends!

Thank you very much for your attention

Methamphetamine

I destroy homes, I tear families apart
I take your children, and that's just the start.
I'm more costly than diamonds, more precious
than gold;
The sorrow I bring is a sight to behold.

If you need me, remember, I'm easily found,
I live all round you, in schools and in town.
I live with the rich, I live with the poor,
I live down the street, I may be next door.

I'm made in a lab, but not like you think,
I can be made under the kitchen sink,
In your child's closet, and even in the woods.
If this scares you to death, it certainly should.

I have many names, but there's one you know best
I'm sure you've heard of me, my name is Crystal Meth.
My power is awesome, try me, you'll see;
But if you do, you'll never be free.

Just try me once, and I might let you go,
But try me twice, and I'll own your soul.
When I possess you, you'll steal and you'll lie;
You do what you have to, just to get high.

The crimes you'll commit, for my narcotic charms
Will be worth the pleasure you'll feel in my arms.
You'll lie to your mother, you'll steal from your dad;
When you see their tears, you should feel sad.

But you'll forget your morals, and how you were raised;
I'll be your conscience, I'll teach you my ways.
I take kids from parents, and parents from kids;
I turn people from God, and separate friends.

I'll take everything from you, your looks and your pride.
I'll be with you always, right by your side.
You'll give up everything, your family, your home,
your friends, your money, and then you'll be alone.

I'll take and I'll take until you have nothing to give;
When I've finished with you, you'll be lucky to be alive.
If you try me, be warned, this is no game;
If given the chance, I'll drive you insane.

I'll ravish your body, I'll control your mind;
I'll own you completely, your soul will bind.
The nightmares I'll give you, while you're lying in bed,
The voices you'll hear, from inside your head.

The sweats, the shakes, and the visions you'll see;
I want you to know, these are all gifts from me.
By then it's too late, and you'll know in your heart,
That you are mine, and we shall not part.
You'll regret that you tried me, they always do;
But you came to me, not I to you.
You knew this would happen, many times you
were told,
But you challenged my power, I chose to be bold.

You could have said no, and just walked away,
If you could live that day over, now what would you say?
I'll be your master, you will be my slave,
I'll even be with you, when you go to your grave.

Now that you have met me, what will you do?
Will you try me or not? It's all up to you;
I can bring you more misery, than words can tell,
Come, take my hand, let me lead you to hell.
