Past Events:

We have already had two card afternoons, with the first one being well-patronised, but unfortunately the second one didn't have as many participants. Please do support Walter and join in the card afternoons. Results are as follows:

17 April:

Jassen

1st Ruedi Benkert

2nd Frieda Meier

3rd Walter Seifert, Berta Hughes and Jean Fuglistaller, with Walter winning the cut.

Booby prize went to Josie Gillbanks.

Euchre

1st Bertha Kuriger

Booby prize went to her husband John. Bertha you must have got all the good cards!!! Next time share them with John!!!

Raffle winners were Heidi Werder, Berta Sidler and Josie Gillbanks.

1 May:

Jassen

1st Maya Stutz

2nd Heidi Seifert

3rd Josie Gillbanks (must have had a better day, Josie!!!) and Othmar Hebler, with Josie winning the cut.

Booby prize went to Berta Sidler.

Sadly there were insufficient Euchre players. Sorry Kathleen ... better luck next time!!!

Raffle winners were Othmar Hebler, Josie Gillbanks and Maya Stutz.

On Sunday 15th May we held the annual Swiss Society competitions ... well, the weather was about as good as at the Swiss Society AGM last June!!! It wasn't all that cold, but was it wet?!!! You better believe it!!! We decided to cancel the shot put due to the wet, and also to avoid injury by people slipping over. Fortunately some people had chosen to shoot on a previous Sunday, so there weren't too many people who had to duck across to the shooting shed!!! Everyone else stayed huddled up inside enjoying a catch-up!!! In the shooting our top-scorer was Remigi Zimmermann with 78 points, followed by Mark Kiser (76), Joe Kiser (73) and Peter Kaiser (72).

In the Keglen Adrian Drummond top-scored with 53 points, followed by Mark Kiser (51), our rifle master Johnny Bishop (50) and Remigi Zimmermann (46). Sadly we only had a few tables of card players but the lucky and/or skilled were: 1st Heidi Seifert, 2nd Berta Sidler, 3rd Mathias Seifert and 4th Marlies Hebler. Our grateful thanks to Zeno von Hospenthal for making the numbers even, and showing how playing cards with one hand is quite achievable ... great commitment to your club, Zeno. Our luckiest punter was Walter Seifert who won the voucher for two complimentary dinners at the Sauerkraut evening ... well done ... if you didn't win a medal, at least you didn't go home empty-handed like some of us!!! Thank you to all the people who ventured out on such a terribly wet and windy day; special thanks to the four juniors who participated ... the Hess and Drummond boys ... let's see if we can pick a better day next year and increase participation!!! If anyone has any ideas on a better time to hold these events, please do not hesitate to contact Othmar, Zeno or Marianne. We appreciate any feedback. Several people stayed on for further games of cards, and then a potluck tea was held with a few more people venturing out. Thank you all for making the effort, and we hope that you all enjoyed yourselves and had a few laughs.

Future Events:

June – Some of our members will go to Wellington, and we're hoping that they return with the coveted cowbell ... we will see!!! Good luck anyway, and I'm sure that you will have a great weekend!!! Look out Wellington, the country bumpkins are on the loose!!!

June 12 & 19: Jassen/Euchre at 1.15pm. Come and enjoy a game of cards on a winter afternoon. It's a good time to catch up with friends.

June 19: Final Championship Shoot at 1.00pm, so come along and support Mark.

Juniors are most welcome, with Mark willing to give some coaching tips.

The club is holding its second potluck tea of the year, so come and make a day of it. Preceding dinner, we will have a Happy Hour for people to mix and mingle over the odd drink. Should be a great day and we look forward to seeing you there.

June 20: Walter is organising this sausage order, so please ring him by 20th June with your order. Walter's phone number is 06 7628559. Please note that should you miss this order there will be another sausage order done to coincide with the 1st August. For this order please ring Lisette on 06 7628718 or Marianne on 06 7628757. We thank you for your timely orders.

July 2: The very popular Anniversary Shoot will be held on the 2nd July, with people able to shoot or skittle from 1.00pm to 3.00pm.

Please note that due to school holidays changing this year, the Anniversary Shoot is on a Saturday.

The delicious Sauerkraut and Pork meal will be served at 5.30pm. Mark puts a great deal of effort into this day, so please come along and support him!!!

July 10 & 17: Cards for the last time this winter. So please go along and support Walter. Games start at 1.15pm.

July 30: We will be celebrating our Swiss National Day on the 30th July this year.

Some of our dedicated committee will be contacting all members (if you're not rung, please contact Marianne) during July. Please make their job easier by making a decision ... it's certainly not an easy job to ring everyone, but it's worse when people are indecisive or don't ring back!!!

We appreciate your help with this, and look forward to another big crowd!!! MD

Past Events:

The Annual General Meeting was held on Friday 29th May at Swisscraft premises in Frankton. A few people arrived early for some bowling practice but most arrived in time for a drink and the meeting. We had 25 people attending, a few more than last year. Following the usual formalities we had election of officers. This year we have no changes to our committee - no resignations and no new people. There were no objections to the $3000 the committee had donated to the Earthquake appeal on behalf of the members. Our current committee consists of: Herbert Staheli, Vitus Achermann, Beatrice Leuenberger, Anita Zuber, Vreni Vetsch, Hanni Frischknecht, Ursula Haeffliger, Max Schwitzer, Richard Wehrle and Hanspeter Burch. Herbert thanked the committee and spouses for all their hard work in the last year as well as all the other willing helpers at our many functions.

Cowbell Competition - Auckland vs Hamilton was held on Sunday 1st May at Swisscraft premises in Frankton. The Auckland contingent of about 12 arrived promptly and were served coffee and cookies. The bowling got underway fairly smartly and with Auckland already having won the shooting it was soon one all with Hamilton winning the bowling. The Hamilton team won the shotput quite convincingly and the Aucklanders won the cards, so again it was a draw.

Another round of cards found our semi-final winner and now Herbert and his team need to head off to Wellington to face the Taranaki Club. Everyone was served a delicious lunch as well as lots of coffee with or without schnapps and plenty of baking. Good luck to the team for the final round in Wellington. Sunday, 31st July - Swiss National Day Celebration. After our very successful function last year, we are again planning a lunch time family meal rather than a dinner, at the Matangi Hall. We will again serve delicious Sauerkraut, Speck, Ham, Sausages and Potatoes as well as the usual selection of home-made baking. Bookings will be required and invitations will be sent to all club members a few weeks beforehand. AZ

Auckland

As Nelly Steinemann is holidaying in Switzerland I took on the job to write about the Auckland Swiss Club activities. I hope you enjoy reading about the past events and also hope you put all the dates of the future events in your diaries. Thanks and see you soon at a function near you.

Society Semi-Finals Sunday 01 May, Hamilton

4 carloads of people made their way to Swisscraft in Hamilton for the Cowbell Semifinal against the Hamilton Club. After a nice coffee and cake, the competition started with Kegeln. Both teams had 9 players before lunch and it was equal points until the very end. When the Hamilton top shooters came on, we unfortunately lost this part. We had already won the shooting. Steinstossen was a bit sad, we only managed to have 3 putters and all 3 threw less than any of the Hamiltonians. Ah well, we had to be good at Jass. After a delicious lunch we played 3 rounds at 3 tables and the clear result was 7-2 wins for Auckland. Which then meant it was 2-2 overall. Which team wants to go to Wellington to try to win the Cowbell at the AGM? Well, we needed to Ausjasen, and the end result was that Auckland lost 2-1. We congratulate Hamilton to the Semifinal win and wish them all the best against Taranaki in Wellington. Some of us will be there and support them. Thanks for all the hospitality and a great day.

AGM Auckland Swiss Club, Monday 02 May

The AGM of the Auckland Swiss Club was well attended and 35 members were voting on the future direction of the club. The club had another financially good year with a surplus. One of the points discussed and agreed on was to make a donation of $5000 to the Christchurch Red Cross Appeal. This is independent of the appeal to the Swiss Society AGM raised by a member of the Hamilton Swiss Club. Marcel Ruedi, our president, guided the AGM very efficiently and all members of the Committee got re-elected, aren't we lucky? In the farm committee we will lose Markus Bühler, who wanted to leave the Farm committee last year but stayed on then. We will have to vote for the Farm committee at next year's AGM. We all thank Markus for all his hard work on the farm over many years. We heard from Hans Iten that our Jass evenings are very well attended and Nellys Jass Clinic proves very popular too. We certainly seem to be able to fill the little Jass room at the Danish House and if it continues to grow we have to move into the big hall. Work at the farm will continue this year and we plan to finish the already started kitchen extension and will look into the feasibility of creating the huge deck/terraced area overlooking the playground. The shooting section is growing as well and is looking healthy. Through the hard work of our "Swiss&Knusprig" team we seem to attract young families and the various events they put on are well attended. You can read about the events in all the Helvetia articles over the months. Our club is gradually growing. At the end of the meeting, all attendees were treated with bread and cold cuts as well as baked goodies from many committee members. Thanks to all who have contributed.

Film and Wähe - Evening Friday 06 May

On the night before our Market Day we had our first scheduled Film Evening. Knowing it was a busy week with the AGM and the Market Day afterwards, we weren't surprised about the slightly lower turnout for the Film. The ones who came for dinner were treated with lovely savoury Wähe (Chueche): Cheese, Onion, Spinach and pumpkin with blue cheese. Then we watched two comedians: Cabaret-duo DivertiMento. Manuel Burkhard and Jonny Fischer made us laugh for 2 hours. Some people in the audience told me, they hadn't laughed so much in a long time. We are considering showing the 2nd show of DivertiMento at some point next year. After the movie, we had another selection of yummi Wähe, this time the sweet ones: Pears, Apple, Zwetschggen. The pieces we couldn't eat anymore on Friday night were then very popular on the Market Day as lunch or dessert.

Market Day - Saturday 07 May

In early May the second annual Swiss Market Day was held. As the weather forecast was for thunderstorms and again possible tornados and the previous night brought heavy rainfalls to the region we were preparing for the worst. But once again apart from half an hour of light rain before noon we were treated to a wonderful day with lots of sun. As usual the interest among stallholders was huge so that we had a record number of over 40 stalls with vendors coming from Auckland, Hamilton, the Bay of Plenty and even from as far as Nelson. As the hall was bursting at its seams already last year we had to extend the stall area to the parking lot in front of the building this year. Additionally this gave us the opportunity to accommodate sellers who brought their own gazebos. For the first time we were able to provide a proper Festhütte and the mandatory Bratwurst and Cervelat barbecue to go with it.

The range of products on offer left nothing to be desired. There was everything from wood carvings, wooden toys, paintings, photographs, posters, handicraft, pottery, carnival masks, t-shirts and bike clothing to secondhand

Sauerkraut, Apple Cider and doorstops from the Itens, next to homemade jams Swiss things like yodel CDs, jass cards and books. Even the big names Victorinox and Zyliss were here to offer their goods.

The hunger could be satisfied at one of the popular food stalls selling the already mentioned sausages, raclette, waffles and crepes or with breads or sweets from the two Swiss bakeries. The Coffee Guys again provided excellent coffee to wash it all down.

For the longer lasting culinary experience one could purchase loads of foods to take home such as cheese (speaking of stereotypes), jams and preserves, organic produce, gingerbread, chocolate and other sweets, chestnuts, olive oils, sauerkraut, honey, smoked salmon, bretzelis, spices and pâtés and dried meats.

The stand of the Swiss club and the one from the Swiss consulate were there to answer any questions one might have had about Switzerland or the Swiss in Auckland and if somebody was not feeling too well after all the walking around he or she could go for a massage, get some information about aromatherapy or get a heat treatment. The visitors came from all over the place to check out the market: the Bay of Islands, Hamilton, Tauranga and even as far as Taranaki!

The whole event was beautifully accompanied by musical performances by the Swiss Kiwi Yodel Group, Peter and Albert on the alphorns & Menk, Ursula and Erich on the bass, handorgel and guitar.

All the happy faces, the animated discussions and the laughter all around were confirmation that the Swiss Market Day is at least as much a social as a commercial event which helps to make this event such a huge success. A big thank you goes out to Tanja who again organized the whole thing in such a brilliant way despite aggravating circumstances. Get well soon! A big thank you also to all the vendors and the helpers whose tireless efforts made this enjoyable day possible.

And an enthusiastic visitor wrote:

Gestern war ich beim Swiss Market und das war so toll!!! Ich ging mit der Absicht, nur einen Kaffee und vielleicht einen kleinen Imbiss zu nehmen und mich dann gleich wieder nach Orewa zu verziehen. Aber oho, das kann man nicht beim Swiss Market Day! Da ich erst etwa um ein Uhr kam, waren die Bratwürste und Cervelat mit Brot alle ausverkauft, so blieb mir "nur noch" das Raclette oder die feinen Süßigkeiten zur Auswahl. Also gesellte ich mich zur Schlange vor dem Raclettestand, kaufte mir und Oskar, der schon halben Wegs vorgerückt war, einen Kaffee und schwatzte eine Weile, bis mir klar wurde, dass, würde ich nicht gleich jetzt noch die Stände durchstöbern, mir die besten Angebote entgingen. So liess ich Oskar in der Schlange zurück und tummelte mich darein. Und da trifft man halt all die Leute - Hans Iten mit Lynn, bietet Sauerkraut und Essig mit Äpfeln an, Pia gibt feine Bretzeli zum Probieren, Franz hat bald seine feinen Konditoreien ausverkauft, Edith und Pascals Schokolade darf man schon gar nicht anschauen, sonst kommt man nicht mehr weg - Carmens feine Venisonsalamis, das Kastanienmehl und Olivenöl, dem Jimmy Speck seine Vogel-Kräuteressenzen - da kommt schon Oskar und lockt mich zum Sitzplatz mit einem feinen Raclette, das mit Silberzwiebel, Cornichon, eingemachter Birne und Händöpfel feinstens begleitet ist. So setzt man sich hin. Es geht natürlich nicht lange, da sitzt man in einer fröhlich plaudernden Runde, und es tummeln sich Leute zur Runde, die man schon so lange nicht mehr gesehen hat, sieht Kinder, die ausgewachsen sind, so dass man sie kaum wiedererkennt, und hört Neuigkeiten aus aller Welt, vor allem der Schweiz. Grad bevor die Standhalter ihre Ware zusammenpacken und die Urchigschweizer den Wein hervorbringen, schaue ich mir noch den Rest des Angebots an - die schönen Schmuckstücke von Leuten, die ich nur halb kenne, Yvonne macht mir einen Spezialpreis für eine tolle feinste Schärpe, die ich meiner Mutter schicken möchte, und ich schweife noch einen kurzen Blick über den Informationstisch unseres Konsuls Peter Deutschle, bevor ich mit der Zeppter Vertreterin noch ein Treffen abmache, damit sie mir die Farbtherapie vorzeigen kann. Noch in weiter Entfernung vom Dänischen Haus habe ich Familien bummeln sehen mit Säcken, die mit Schweizer Marktware vollgepackt waren. Bei meiner Freundin zum Tee, was tischt sie mir auf? Engadiner Nusstorte vom Markt. Wer weiss, wie sich dieser Markt noch entwickelt... Die Hauptorganisatorin Tania, so habe ich mir erzählen lassen, sei in langsamer Genesung von einer Operation. Ich wünsche ihr ganz herzlich Gute Besserung und bedanke mich für ihre Bemühungen für einen so schönen Nachmittag!!!

Dieser Markttag war ein Volltreffer!!

Past Events:

On Saturday the 16 April 2011, 20 members of the Wellington Swiss Club met for their AGM. The numerous events of the past year were recapitulated and Roland thanked everyone who participated in making the year another success. The treasurer's report showed that although there are on-going legal fees for the roof, there should be sufficient funds to proceed with the bathroom renovations. John Jordan, our Riflemaster explained that overall scores have improved and Wellington has won the Cowbell Shooting for the second year in a row.

Unfortunately Roland expressed his wish to step down from his role as president and he would like to encourage others to take up the opportunity to lead our club. Roland has been a strong force and the safe hands behind our club and we are going to thoroughly miss his wisdom and guidance. Vreni, the vice president has also resigned due to health reasons. The club wishes to thank her for all the time and effort she has put into our club. Unfortunately there were no volunteers to take over these two roles. It was therefore agreed to organize an 'Extraordinary General Meeting' where it is hoped that we will find a new vice- and president and a way to share the work more amongst the committee and club members.

Elected and accepted were the following:

Treasurer:	Sibylle Sharma
Secretary:	Odile Stotzer
Members:	Sandie Simons
	Peter Hynes
Auditor:	John Alderdice
Riflemaster:	John Jordan
Vice - Riflemaster:	Paul Scherrer

Sandie

14th May: Fondue

The first fondue of the year was a success, as usual. There were over a hundred members, guests and friends from Switzerland.

Roland first thanked Heinz Jäggi for organising a very successful garage sale, the most successful garage sale ever, last year. Pitsch thanked Roland and Vreni for having led the Swiss Club for so many years and he encouraged all members to come to the 3rd July extraordinary AGM. He also told us the sad news that he will be leaving for Australia very soon.

Robert Macdonald explained some legal aspects of the Swiss Club. There was a raffle, with the first prize being a nice quilt; 250 tickets were sold, and Robert and Jeanine won.

3rd July: Extraordinary AGM

The committee of the Wellington Swiss Club invites you to an Extraordinary AGM on Sunday 3rd July 2011 at 2pm at the Club house (21 Moores Valley Road). Refreshments will be provided.

After more than 10 years of strong governance, the president and vice president of the Wellington Swiss Club have decided to step aside. The proposed positions are required to be filled at the AGM and therefore we encourage everybody to come along to show their support.

This is also a unique opportunity for members to participate more actively in the future of our Club and continue to contribute to the history of our over 50 year old Swiss Club.

We look forward to seeing you on Sunday 3rd July.

Odile Stotzer

Thanks everyone who filled this in to assist your Swiss Abroad representatives to speak more knowledgeably for you.

We got 49 responses - 31 written, and 18 from the on-line version of the survey. (Thanks Ignaz for your help in making the on-line version.) As well as publishing it through Helvetia, we used the "Events" part of the SwissCommunity.org website to invite people to go to the on-line survey. If you've not explored that website yet, it's really worth a visit.

So what have you told us? Of the people who replied, 37 were registered to vote, and 12 not. Of those who are not registered, it's largely because they feel it's not relevant to them now, and they're too distant to be able, or entitled, to vote. Of those who are registered, 86% always (32%) or often (54%) vote. Their decision whether to vote or not is based largely on whether they have enough information, followed by how strongly they feel about an issue. Several people commented that they don't vote on financial matters because they don't pay taxes, so should not dictate how they're spent.

Voters get information mostly from the voting papers (95%) followed evenly by reading/watching Swiss media over the internet (newspapers, TV programmes etc), reading Swiss Review, and conversations with friends and family. Not surprisingly, more people who answered the survey on line also get their information that way.

We also asked how you felt about the things Swiss Abroad are lobbying on.

1. Creation of a law for the Swiss Abroad. Swiss people abroad need a reliable legislative foundation that puts into practice the mandate of the constitution.

This had least support (57%), and with more people unsure or indifferent (38%)

2. It should be made easier to use the political rights from abroad (e-voting, participation in the election of the Ständerat).

64% support; 32% unsure or indifferent.

3. Promotion of international mobility of the Swiss (agreements to free movement, reduction of obstacles).

74% support, 23% unsure or indifferent

4. Adequate consular services (sufficient numbers of consulates, increase in e-government).

66% support. 6% opposed this - from comments it appears because people consider we're already well-enough served.

5. Extension of communication with the Fifth Switzerland (Swiss Review, swissinfo, Swiss Community).

The most supported item: 87% support.

6. Giving increased status and importance to the Council of the Swiss Abroad (Auslandschweizerrat) as the representative of the Fifth Switzerland.

72% support, 26% unsure or indifferent.

7. Strengthening/Extension of the international presence of Switzerland.

72% support, 26% unsure or indifferent.

Mani Züst will be taking this information to the Swiss Abroad Conference in Lugano in August. He thanks you for your input. Democracy relies on it!
