Albert entertained us with alphorn, Othmar and Leo played the harmonica - and there was enough time to catch up with old and new friends.

Check out Othmar, Albert and Leo entertaining us in the evening on their alphorn and accordion:

Monday: After another night in the clubhouse another breakfast was served, and our guests didn't go on their way home hungry... It was a good weekend. A big thank you to all the named and unnamed helpers who made it happen - and I hope Roland will lend his cooking skills to the club also in the future, although he has resigned from the committee!

A special appreciation and thank-you must go to Peter Hynes who committed not only his time, put also put in a lot of kilometres driving, and to Monika's professional guidance. It was much appreciated and it was a pleasure to work in the kitchen. On top of all other chores Monika found time to cook and prepare 100 pears at home for the dessert! Thank you very much; I think efforts like that make the Wellington Swiss Club popular.

Thank you to all our dear friends for their most generous financial contributions; they are very much appreciated!
