Fun tips for La Chaux-de-Fonds/Le Locle

Tip No. 1 Swin Golf

Swin Golf is a bit like traditional golf but adjusted by the French to make it less daunting. You play with one three-sided club only and a foam ball that's a bit bigger than a traditional ball.

The 18 holes are also bigger, but that doesn't make it any easier. It's great to spend an afternoon in the open air and get some exercise without even realising it.

Good fun for the whole family. Adults CHF 19.00 Children CHF 11.00.

Consigli della Nonna

1) Cuff and collar stains will age a shirt long before the rest of it has given up. Treat those areas by rubbing in a paste of equal parts baking soda and vinegar before washing as usual.

2) Treat marks on carpets and rugs by lightly spraying with vinegar - do not soak the area just dampen. Sprinkle with baking soda and allow to dry. Vacuum up the remains. Test on an area normally covered by furniture first.

Tip No. 2 International Museum of Horology

Of course Swissies are always bang on time because the International Museum of Horology is located in La-Chaux-de-Fonds. Historically, the City of La Chaux-de-Fonds is considered one of the focal points of the Swiss watchmaking industries and the home of one of the country's famous watchmaking schools. ## Tip Nr. 3 Chasseral Regional Park

I remember our French teacher always telling us about Mount Chasseral and how beautiful the view is from up there! Especially if you stay overnight and you get the chance to see the sunrise. And believe it or not, five years ago, just before we left Switzerland, we did it! It was stunning. Absolutely worth your while to go for a hike!
