Avant-Garde Museology

edited by Arseny Zhilyaev

and including more than forty historical texts by authors such as Nikolai Fedorov, Aleksandr Rodchenko, Kazimir Malevich, Aleksandr Bogdanov, Andrey Platonov, and many others, is the first title in e-flux Classics, a new book series from e-flux.

At last Anglophone readers have a chance to access the key texts of early twentieth-century Russian museology. Zhilyaev has assembled an indispensable anthology that offers a vivid and timely alternative to overfamiliar Western exhibition histories. Curatorial students looking for radical models—start here! — Claire Bishop

At their different stages, Soviet museums were places for artistic experimentation, for formulating social and political projects, and for ideological struggle. Arseny Zhilyaev's comprehensive reader on Soviet museum history tells a story which, until now, has been virtually unknown to the international public. — Boris Groys

PARKETT
G A T E S

Wide-ranging dimensions are covered in this volume of Parkett not only geographically but also anthropologically. In the work of Andrea Büttner, Abraham Cruzvillegas, Camille Henrot, and Hito Steyerl, we find not only variations on the narrative of creation but also exemplary reviews of everyday culture in a hearty and densely interrelated mélange of people, animals, objects, plants, and minerals.

Es sind weiträumige Dimensionen, die sich in dieser Parkett-Ausgabe auftun, geographisch und menschheitsgeschichtlich. Die Werke von Andrea Büttner, Abraham Cruzvillegas, Camille Henrot und Hito Steyerl umkreisen genauso die Schöpfungsgeschichte wie den exemplarischen Nahblick auf die heutigen Alltagskulturen, um in einer herzhaften Melange Menschen, Tiere, Objekte, die Pflanzen- und Gesteinswelt in dichte Beziehungen zu setzen.
