General Editor's Preface

SPELL (Swiss Papers in English Language and Literature) is a publication of SAUTE, the Swiss Association of University Teachers of English. Established in 1984, it first appeared every second year, but has been published annually since 1994. Every second issue is devoted to a selection of papers given at the association's biennial symposia. The alternate volumes often contain papers given at conferences organised by SANAS, the Swiss Association for North-American Studies (however, other proposals are also welcome).

Volumes of SPELL contain carefully selected and edited papers devoted to a topic of literary, linguistic and – broadly – cultural interest. Articles are usually by participants at the conferences mentioned, but the volume editors are free to accept or solicit further contributions. Papers published in SPELL are documented in the MLA International Bibliography. SPELL is published with the financial support of the Swiss Academy of Humanities and Social Sciences.

Information on all aspects of SPELL, including volumes planned for the future, is available from the General Editor, Professor Lukas Erne, Département d'anglais, Faculté des Lettres, Université de Genève, CH-1211 Genève 4, Switzerland, e-mail: lukas.erne@lettres.unige.ch.

Information about SAUTE in general and about how to become a member can be obtained from the website of the association at <http://www.saute.ch>.

Acknowledgements

The editors wish to thank Keith Hewlett for carefully preparing this volume for print and the General Editor, Lukas Erne, for his patience and support. We are also very grateful to Danielle Hickey, Martin Mühlheim and Simone Heller of the English Department at the University of Zurich for their invaluable help in the preparation of the manuscript and the index.
