The Healing Places Heilende Orte

Heilende Orte sind «geladene Orte», Orte, an denen etwas geschieht oder geschehen ist. Rituale der Urvölkerung zum Beispiel. Oder ein Ort wie Sedona mit messbaren Schwingungen.

(POINT REYES, CALIFORNIA) – The Miwok Indians' spiritual and pragmatic existence was inextricable from their idea of nature, particularly the relationship of land and water. The wellbeing and health of the tribe was dependant on maintaining their relationship with the "spirits" of nature. Those of the Kuksu Cult believed it was necessary to continuously conciliate the "spirits" so that they would continue to provide food and prevent natural catastrophes. The text: a song attributed to the "spirit" ceremony.

HUMQUAQ (POINT CONCEPTION, CALIFORNIA) – The Chumash Indians regarded this point, the most western point of the continent, as the place where souls entered and left the earth. The text is a Chumash blessing in the name of the Indian God to turn the course of an illness. The first phrase is recited to the North and to the South, the second phrase is recited to the East and to the West.
