PUBLICATIONS RECEIVED.

Schweizer Mustermesse—Basle.—The first number of the official bulletin states that the applications received so far from intending exhibitors are, in spite of the economic crisis, very encouraging. In a special appeal Dr. Haab, the President of the Confederation, points out that under present conditions a full and numerous participation is all the more called for so as to give a true and representative picture of the development and capacity of the different branches. Particulars are given of the concessions granted to visitors by the Swiss Federal Railways, such as reduction in price and extension of validity of return tickets.
