Chancellor. As regards the other guests, Mr. Forster exhibited an elating versatility in paying each delegate a flattering compliment for what, in his opinion, he or his particular society excelled in. The following societies were officially represented:—Secours Mutuels des Suisses, Mons. G. Colomb and Mons. L. Audemars; City Swiss Club, Mons. G. Marchand and Mons. L. Jobin; Unione Ticinese, Mons. W. Notari and Mons. E. Biucchi; Swiss Mercantile Society, Mons. A. C. Stahelin; Nouvelle Société Helvétique, Mons. C. Campart and Mme. Campart; Union Helvetia, Mons. Lehrian and Mons. F. Scheidegger; Swiss Choral Society, Mons. E. Bommer and Mons. E. Ritzmann; Swiss Gymnastic Society, Mons. E. Block; Swiss Rifle Association, Mons. A. Schmid; Swiss Observer, Mons. P. F. Boehringer and Mme. Boehringer.

Mr. L. Pache, the vice-president, proposed the toast to "The Ladies." With a sustained effort he endeavoured to keep his fair hearers at the gist of expectancy without openly betraying the pitch of his sallies.

On behalf of the "Old Bones" Mr. Delalay expressed satisfaction at the arduous work and disinterested spirit which the present committee were devoting to their heavy and often thankless task. He was sure they had in Messrs. Tresch and Forster two enthusiastic and practical leaders who would not rest, but continue until their ideals had been realised. He heartily endorsed the President's appeal that every Swiss in London ought to be made aware that at 74, Charlotte Street he would at all times find "a bit of the old country."

Mr. Dürlewanger, another "old bone," delved into old history, especially the club events of 1884. He was most impressed by the radical changes that had taken place since in ladies' fashions. When he was a Romeo, much was left to the imagination, but nowadays . . . (the remainder of the sentence was lost in the general laughter).

Mr. P. F. Boehringer (Swiss Observer) returned thanks on behalf of the visitors.

The company adjourned soon after 11 p.m. to allow of the hall being rearranged for the ball, which, agreeably diversified by yodels and similar turns, kept everyone in high spirits till the early hours of the morning.

We cannot close our report without paying a tribute to the excellency of the arrangements, which, with such a large gathering, must have taxed the limited resources as regards space to the utmost. Special praise is due to the stewards, Mr. and Mrs. Christen, who ministered to everybody's comfort, though the hospitality of the Schweizerbund has already become a household word in our Colony.

VACANCIES IN SWITZERLAND.

At the request of the Federal Labour Office (Eidgen. Arbeitsamt, 8, Bundesgasse, Bern) we are publishing, at regular intervals, lists of special vacancies in Switzerland for which suitable candidates are not available at home. Whilst it is intended to fill these vacancies, whenever possible, with Swiss from abroad, applications are considered from foreigners possessing the necessary qualifications. Offers, stating date of publication and reference number, should be addressed to the Swiss Consulate in whose district the applicant resides, and will then be forwarded to the proper quarter in Switzerland. We publish the list in the original text as received from the Labour Office.
