SWISS GYMNASIAC SOCIETY.

The benefit display, concert and dance for Mrs. G. Luethy and her children took place on March 28th at the Schweizerbund, 74, Charlotte Street, W.1, and was a great success from every point of view. The hall was cramped full a few minutes after the start of the entertainment, and it was quite impossible to turn round. A fine programme, composed of smartly executed exercises at the parallel bars, pommeled horse and pyramids, as well as an excellent Indian club-swinging display by Mr. O'Brien, a clever catch-as-catch-can wrestling exhibition by Messrs. W. Schneeberger and P. Tordera, intermingled with excellent concert items, such as jodel songs by Mrs. B. Aebersold, a fine rendering of Leoncavallo's Pagliacci by Mr. Silvestrelli, a high-class rendering of Liszt's Rhapsodie No. 11 on the piano by Miss E. May, and songs and good humour at the piano by Mr. Dickson were greatly appreciated by a most enthusiastic audience, which left the premises fully satisfied that they had witnessed one of the best entertainments the Swiss Gymnastic Society, London had ever provided, and with the knowledge that they had supported a good cause. As a result of the evening the sum of £36 has been handed to Mrs. Luethy and her children. Special support has been given to achieve this fine result by the staff of the Hotel Metropole, the members and committee of the Swiss Club Schweizerbund, Swiss Sports Committee, Swiss Legation, Union Helvetia, as well as the friends and members of the Swiss Gymnastic Society, London. SWISS CHORAL SOCIETY.

ANNUAL CONCERT.

The Swiss Choral Society gave us a varied programme last Friday, when they held their one concert of the year. Though a very wet evening, the Mortimer Hall was well filled, and the gathering assumed quite a social aspect.

The choir's opening numbers were "Morgen im Walde" (Hegar)—as refreshing as a ramble before breakfast—and "s Heiwehland," both tuneful and harmonious. We were now assured of a pleasant evening, and accorded each succeeding item well-merited applause.

Swiss composers occupied a fair portion of the programme, which was as it should be, and were particularly well received. The yodelling song "Was heimelig syg," by Ferd. Huber (St. Gall), sung by the S.C.S. Double Quartette (yodeler: A. Deubelbeiss), aroused enthusiasm and a demand for "more," and "Am Brünnelein" (Heinr. Bungart) was also a popular number. For another encore the quartette sang "Ritzen," which set many heads awagging, and many feet travelling, in fancy, far beyond the walls of Mortimer Hall.

Other numbers by the choir were "Liberté" (L. & Rod. Gaillard), Adieu, petite rose" (E. Jacques-Dalcroze), "In der Fremde" and "The Song of the Jolly Roger"—all of which did credit to them and their able conductor, Mr. Rodolphe Gaillard.

It seemed to me that the technique of the choir had considerably improved since last year; balance and expression were better, though perhaps a trifle more restraint in the more delicate passages might further improve.

The choral items were interspersed with baritone songs by Rod. Gaillard, 'cello selections by Miss Yvonne Morris, and piano solos by Miss Irene Meyrick, who also played the accompaniments. These artists all gave finished performances, and supplied that element of variety necessary to an evening of choral music by even the best of choirs. R. D. M.

A NEW SINGER.

Music lovers will be interested to learn that a very charming and talented young singer, Miss Violette Browne, will be giving a Song Recital shortly, arrangements having been made for Monday, May 17th, at Wigmore Hall, though, of course, a postponement may be made if there is no strike settlement within the next few days.

Miss Violette Browne has a reputation on the Continent as a soprano of exceptional vocal ability, possessing a very beautiful voice and the knowledge of how to use it to the best possible advantage.

Being a daughter of our friend Mr. A. Brauen, we feel that the Swiss Colony has a special claim to a share in the honours of a successful career, such as we cordially wish hers to be.

Meantime, we look forward to hearing her on the 17th, or perhaps a later date which would be announced in these columns. M.
