THE EDITOR'S POST-BAG.

To the Two Engländer am Zuercher
Sechseläuten.

In the last instalment of your much appreciated narrative about the "Sechseläuten" in Zürich, you mention a few delicacies with which you made acquaintance, when in our homeland, such as:

Schweinsrippli with Sauerkraut
St. Galler Schüblinge
Rösti mit Bratwurst
Mehlsuppe and Habersuppe
Servelat mit Nusstisalat.

saying that you are trying to find a place here in London where you could now and again indulge in the above mentioned specialities. May I inform you that you will find all these and many more at the shop of our countryman, O. Bartholdi, Charlotte Street. I do not think that he is selling "Kirschwasser" but this could be bought at the famous Swiss Hotel (Proprietor: A. Wyss) Old Compton Street, W., but I do not know if I should give you this information, but perhaps your Daddy might make use of this address.

Hoping that you will enjoy a visit to these establishments and that it will bring back to you pleasant memories, I remain,

Yours sincerely,
One who Knows.

SWISS MERCANTILE SOCIETY LIMITED.

In connection with the scholastic programme the following lectures were given by the students during last week:—

Mr. W. Hofer, Berne: "Submarines."
Mr. G. A. Scherer, Antwerp: "Historical Outline and the Advantages of the Port of Antwerp."

Mr. R. E. Kielinger, Zurich: "Some West African Impressions."

Mr. W. Dueggelin, Zurich: "Why Students do not come out to speak?"

Mr. B. Leuenberger, Berne: "Modern Italy."
Mr. E. Pletscher, Horgen: "Swiss Mountains."

On Friday, June 5th the Students of the S.M.S. College listened to a very interesting and instructive lantern lecture on "With Amundsen to the South Pole" by T. Banyard, Esq. who gave us a very vivid and detailed description of this exciting expedition.

The Students of the S.M.S. spent an enjoyable day (marred only by some rain) on Tuesday June 9th at Portsmouth Naval Dockyard. Great interest was evinced by visits to the workshops. The Submarines in dry dock and the battle cruiser "London" (one of the most modern ships) interested all. None will forget the history of Nelson after having heard the explanations given on board the "Victory."

The Students were accompanied on this trip by Mr. M. Paschoud (President of the S.M.S.) and Mrs. Paschoud and by a representative of the Swiss Legation.

Pour la "FETE SUISSE" du 25 Juin.

La semaine dernière, l'honorable organe de notre Colonie a rappelé à tous les Confédérés de langue allemande que la grande famille suisse de Londres allait se réunir Jeudi 25 Juin, au Central Hall, pour sa 62e. Soirée annuelle, et que leur place y était marquée d'avance, largement. A notre tour, Welsches, de nous souvenir que nous aussi, nous avons notre part dans la grande symphonie helvétique. Pour plus modeste qu'elle soit, au point de vue numérique, elle n'en a pas moins sa valeur. Et que dirons-nous donc de nos chers Confédérés d'outre-monts, italiens ou romanches de langue, mais aussi suisses que quiconque? Tous, il faut qu'ils y soient, en aussi grand nombre que possible, pour constituer cet orchestre des coeurs qui, bien vite se mettent à battre à l'unisson, quand l'amour de la Patrie les fait vibrer! Et la Patrie chérie, lointaine, hélas, mais pourtant toujours proche, elle surgira devant nos yeux à tous, ce jeudi-là. Nous en écouterons en esprit la grande voix, voix des torrents, voix des clochers; nous en percevrons les senteurs âpres et toniques, parfums des fleurs de nos montagnes, rhododendrons, orchis vanillés; nous en verrons le visage drapé de la blanche majesté de ses glaciers éblouissants, de la verte douceur de ses pâturages, de l'azur incomparable de ses lacs, de son ciel.

Venez. Amis, retrouvez le pays et raviver les souvenirs cachés au tréfonds de votre mémoire. Ce sera bon, ce sera doux. Et vous aurez repris courage pour toute une année, loin du pays!

"FUNNY CUTS"

The newcomer who had poined the group of negro nursemaids in a Washington park, left with her charges. One of the dusky nurses asked the oldest "mammy" present:

"Aunt Chloe' is dat lady from Fo'ginia?"

"I doan know, chile, is she from Fo'ginia. Ef she is she'll say so, an 'ef she ain' I ain' gwine mortify her by axin' is she."

The Swiss Monthly

A doctor had been to see one of his patients, a widow. "You are slightly morbid, my dear lady," he said. "You should marry again."

"Oh, doctor," she answered coyly, "is this a proposal?"

"Allow me to remind you, madam," came the quick reply, "that a doctor prescribes medicine, but he doesn't take it!"
