SWISS CLUB BIRMINGHAM.

The Annual General Meeting of the Swiss Club Birmingham took place on the 9th inst. at the Grand Hotel, Birmingham, under the Presidency of M. P. Brun.

M. P. A. Duvoisin, Hon. Secretary read out the minutes of the last General Meeting, which were unanimously passed.

The auditors acquainted the meeting with the financial state of the Society, and proposed that a vote of thanks should be passed to the Hon. Treasurer, M. J. Schenkel, for the way in which the books were kept.

The financial position, according to the Balance sheet produced, is a very satisfactory one, although the amounts paid out for relief were slightly heavier than in the previous year; the financial status of the Society has not been affected, in fact the funds have increased.

The Balance sheet was accepted with acclamation, and the auditors Messrs. Wyss and Forestier were thanked for their audit.

M. Klötzli, who acted as Chairman pro temp., informed the Meeting that the outgoing committee has resigned en bloc. He paid a great tribute to the last Committee which had done such splendid work in the past, and after a lengthy discussion, the following members were proposed and duly elected:

M. P. Brun, President.

M. E. Brunner, Vice-President.

M. P. A. Duvoisin, Hon. Secretary.

M. F. Beer, Hon. Treasurer.

M. E. Brunner, Relief.

Messrs. C. J. Reinhart and R. Schenkel, Trustees.

The President, M. Brun, then made a fervent appeal to the members of the Society to do their utmost to make the "Grand Swiss Rally and Annual Dinner and Ball," which will take place on Saturday, March 25th, at the Grand Hotel in Birmingham, a great success. He mentioned that M. C. R. Paravicini, the Swiss Minister has kindly consented to be in the Chair, and he expressed the wish, that many of the sister societies in London and the province will be represented.
