THE FOYER SUISSE.

The Annual Meeting of the Foyer Suisse was held on Friday the 26th May, 1933, at No. 15, Upper Bedford Place, W.C.1., the Swiss Minister, Monsieur C. R. Paravicini, Hon. President of Trust being in the chair. The agenda consisted of the ordinary statu-tory business.

Rev. R. Hoffmann-de Visme, President; Mr. F. G. Sommer, Vice-President;

Rev. R. Holmann-ue visite, President; Mr. F. G. Sommer, Vice-President; Wr. H. Barth, Treasurer; with Messrs C. Bertschinger, T. Bessire, C. T. Hahn, H. Joss, A. Müller, and V. W. K.

J. Weber.

The annual report prepared by the Secretary usual, and printed below was read discussed and fully approved.

The proceedings terminated with a vote of thanks to the chairman.

thanks to the chairman. Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen, The economic war which has swept over the world for more than 2 years has not yet abated its fury. The shrinkage of trade all over the world, the fall of commodity prices, the monetary con-fusion, coupled with a continuation of general political unrest marks the past year as the most difficult on record difficult on record.

Such adverse conditions are bound to affect our Trust on its business side, and I think members will not be altogether surprised to find that the year's operations close up with a small deficit. Anyone with insight will fully agree with the statement that maintaining its position as the Forer has done, requires far greater efforts than surplusses of earlier and more prosperous years. Your Council of Management has met 5 times during the year to receive the reports of the House Committee and the Secretary, and to manage the affairs in general.

affairs in general. The trust has lost one member by removal to Switzerland, Mr. Pradervand, who has accepted the Pastorate of Ressudens Claude Vaud. An-other member and founder of the Constitution of the Foyer Suisse, the late Mr. J. Baer, has, we regret to say, died in Switzerland during this year. Our guests for the 12 months number 1,002, the lowest figure on record. Of this total 514 were of Swiss nationality, also the smallest percentage for the last 10 years. While in 1931-32 it was

LONDON GOSSIP.

DERBY WEEK. -

We have been swimming the other day when everybody was talking about a heat wavelet, which, as you know, means 75°F. in the shade of the Monico Bar. — To put that more clearly, this is the bar with the side entrance from Shaftesbury Avenue, and incidentally well-known to many a business man from "Ennenda." — Oh yes, all drinks are served by females behind the counter.-

In the swimming pool in Paddington, we just had to turn our eyes towards a lady of about 16 stones, whose locomotion seemed to be extremely difficult on dry land; but she moved in the water as graciously as a goldfish. —No wonder the old family members of Dinosauria got so selfcon-scious when they had to go on land for a picknick or something, and finally decided to die in disgust, when the waters definited withdhow when the waters definitely withdrew.

Maybe here is our way to relieve the London waterways where the "well-proportioned" just could "slip" from shop to shop, or from restau-rant to restaurant. — But, how on earth shall we get all human "inflations" to swim, and where should we get all the water from - in London.

But there is still some other hope to look forward to: the wax bath is the latest method of reducing. The "patient" gets into a basket lined with oiled paper and is covered with warm medicated wax. One hour in this soft mould is supposed to take off several pounds. — Whoever thinks of going to try this out on Saturday night, better keep it secret from the family and other friends — not only because of the mess — but there is a natent on this treatment ! there is a patent on this treatment !

Talking about reducing and so forth — why not "work" for a while with Tramun? It cer-tainly must be exhilirating to drop 17,250 ft. with a stop watch in one hand and a string of a para-chute in the other, figuring out the drop in miles dations. The thanks of the Trust are herewith expressed to Mr. W. Meyer manager, Mr. F. Kölliker and Mrs. Kölliker, housekeeper and their staff, as well as to Mr. R. J. Dixon the accountant. Our charity donations amount to £226 2s. 3d. this does not include our social secretary expenditure of £133 17s. 3d.

diture of £133 17s. 3d. Ist Legacy received by the Foyer Suisse. For the first time in our history we have been mentioned in a Will. Our late friend, Alfred Muller left us £50 free of Estate Duty and his own clock, which is now in use in this hall. May his iniative and example find many a follower. It is a strange thing and nowadays an almost forgotten truth that if it were not for the fact of the Eglise Suisse having collected à fonds perdu the sum of £4,700 in cash in 1912-1913 our institu-tion could not render all the services it does. This brings me to the Social Service Societies of our propert. It is per 90 of the Trust. The second 5 years were devoted to the setting up of the Trust. The third 5 years were spent in rebuilding and the dalptation of premises. The last 5 years have witnessed the gradual evolution of the social machinery in the Hall and Hostel for the reception and accommodation in Iondon of young men and women, mainly of Swiss Nationality, without distinction of language or religion, where they may obtain assistance and advice, according to our Memorandum and Articles of Association. Besides continuous domiciliary services to young people of both sexes, the young men have benefited by the Swiss Y.M.C.A. since 1923, and the French speaking Y.M.C.A. since 1925.

per hour. Tramun says that it is quite simple, as long as one does not start revolving which, of course, would necessitate a further calculation: Conset, would necessitate a further calculation: ft. per Min. x 12 devided by dia. in inch x 3.14 =Revolutions per minute. This is undoubtedly asking for trouble! And we unhesitatingly agree that this extra work would considerably reduce the comfortability of the ordinary "falling down." After all, one is supposed to pull the string for opening the parachute somer or later. Tramun pulled it when he began to see the earth in a distance of 3,750 ft.

In a case like this it must be tough luck to step on the "gas" instead of stepping on the brakes. — as that lady-driver did the other day, when she was backing the car into the garage. — But, of course, she always could blame the other cars for not being at their proper places.

cars for not being at their proper places. Some time ago, somebody in America struck again a great idea, called it "Technocracy," and sold it to the tired world as something to think about. Technocracy was, in a way, an accusa-tion — but then who cares to be accused — and so this great idea faded away. And now Prof. I. M. Passano found out that "thinking" wouldn't do the trick, but realized that nearly everybody believes his doctor, if he gives a latin mame to an imaginary pain. And so he discovered a disease, called "Macrocephalism." He says that this disease has for some time been prevalent in big business circles. — The most interesting and remarkable symptoms of macrocephalism is that it causes the patient to know — or to think he knows — everything. The patient will under-take the solution of every problem of science, economics, politics or finance. All of which would be very comforting to mankind were it not that all the solutions are infused with the vagueness, the vacuity, of a mind working under the influ-ence of disease. — It is said that efforts all over the world to treat the disease have met with little the world to treat the disease have met with little success.

ever undertaken by the Trust. As compared with the young men who had the benefit of the long-established Y.M.C.A.'s and a standing secretary at their disposal, it was high time that the young women should have their due, considering the fact that for one young man, who usually comes here for study, four to five girls arrive in England, mostly for service. The permanent appointment of a fully trained woman became therefore neces-sary in order to fulfil the essential demands of our statures. statutes.

statutes. It must ever be born in mind that the main object of the establishment of the Foyer Suisse is to benefit a certain class of people, namely, "young men and women mainly of Swiss nation-ality," and that the benefit these people are to receive is "assistance and advice." The method of contact with them to this end is to be by means " of a Hall and Hostel centre of union." For these purposes the funds and income of

For these purposes the funds and income of the Foyer Suisse must first and foremost be applied, and any diversion of the funds by way applied, and any diversion of the funds by way of donations or otherwise must not be detrimental to this main end. The appointment of a Girls Social Secretary was a right and proper step for the achievement of the main object for which the Foyer Suisse exists, especially having regard to the peculiar needs of young women and the lack in our Colony of institutions such as are available to the young men to the young men.

to bertend them. The Foyer has thus created the ever open door of the Home away from Home. Three Sunday afternoon programmes have been published during the year. During the Sum-mer we arranged excursions, and during the Win-ter a series of lectures and concerts. The thanks of the Trust are due to the many Swiss and English friends who assisted us in making these afternoons pleasant and educational. The Old Folks Christmas Luncheon was held in December with our Honorary President, Mons. Paravicini in the chair. It was attended by some 50 of our veterans of the Swiss Colony in London, and enjoyed to the fullest extent by all. By the suggestion of our Minister, this year's silver medal with due inscription of name and date of birth of the doyen of our old folks was given to MIle. Gilbertine Weber de Génève born 21, 11, 1843. This compatriot was so overjoyed with the receipt of this momento that she sent a long letter inviting of this comparison was so over joyed with the receipt of this momento that she sent a long letter inviting the members of the Foyer Suisse to come and a cup of coffee, bread, etc., and a placard in the midst of it, stating '' I am Swiss.'' The purpose midst of it, stating "I am Swiss." The purpose is to protect the customers, so that Nazis would not disturb the dimer, though he be a Jew. — Are we to take this as a compliment, or as an insult? says William Tell.

And then we had another argument with a Reverend who just did not want to believe that each and everybody sees a different rainbow, no matter how close we all stand together looking at it?

That Culbertson is coming to England should That Curversion is coming to England should be cheerful news to many of us. — We do not suggest, of course, that he might improve our individual tricks to a great extent, but then Cul-bertson was the man who said, after the fight was over: that the word "luck" should be kicked over: that the word "Inck" should be kicked out of the bridge vocabulary, since chances are even in the long run. — Yes, but now what about the old excuse: that was just bad luck, darling !?

We hear again that our famous complain to be in a rather bad way, and that even Prof. Laur cannot give heaven to them for always. — So far cannot give heaven to them for always. — So far as that goes, we sympathise with the old man who said : There is a lot of pity wasted on animals. There are many contented cows, but who ever heard of a contented farmer?

Well, it is absolutely your own fault, if you missed to bring something home from Epsom downs. After all, Naylor told everybody just what horse was going to win, — and it does not pay to be highbrow where the stars and the "Sun-day Express" are involved! But there is another Derby next year, and maybe, even another Irish sweep; and all horses running then will again be 3 years old, and you can buy, blushing all over. 3 years old, and you can buy, blushing all over, another secret tip for a shilling. *

In the meantime, we would suggest for a rainy Sunday, to read again Arnold Bennett's "Imperial Palace," or Stephan Graham's latest "Twice around the clock."

In connection with our venerable Swiss seniors, a further experiment of a Musical After-noon with a high tea was made in March last. This experiment was carried through in a quite free and informal manner, and also proved a great success. About 15-20 young people of both sexes, members of the Y. M.C.A. and both girls meetings had volunteered to serve the tea, and provide yoddelling and Swiss song community singing. Besides a violin and a cello, our friend Mr. Sommer supplied well-known tunes on his Handorgele. All of those who were present were simply carried away by the enthusiasm and fervour shown by our old friends joining in all the well known airs and choruses. No wonder these friends are ready for more such occasions, and we are contemplating giving them a further opporare contemplating giving them a further opporthat concempting gring them a further oppor-tunity in the near future. Again our heartiest thanks to all the volunteer helpers on this occa-sion. One of the best and incidental results of this Musical afternoon was the co-operation of all the young people of the Foyer in a single worthy offect of environ effort of service.

Besides the direct services of the Foyer there are the various separate organisations to be mentioned .

Réunion de jeunes filles, every Thursday after-noon, directed by Pasteur R. Hoffmann-de Visme

Die Verhandlungen der N.H.G. in Ihrer vorletzten Nummer rapportiert, haben etwelche Klärung geschaffen, und die Auslandschweizer können sich vorderhand beruhigen, sie wissen dass man in kompetenten Kreisen klaren Sinn und nationale Gesinnung an den Tag legt. Auch der Bundesrat hat kräftig eingegriffen, und die Neuen Fronten in einer Hinsicht in vernünftige Bahnen geleitet, durch das "Uni-formen etc." Verbot. Nach der Abstimmung vom 28. Mai über das Besoldungsgesetz wird, je nach dem Resultat, die ganze politische Welt der Schweiz entweder sich neu einstellen oder auf der alten demokratisch bewährten Pfaden weiter sich ausbauen müssen. Wenn sie dabei etwas von den Faseisten hinüber nimmt, so kann es nur nützlich sein für die Auffrischung des nationalen Denkens und Schaf-fens.
