JUBILEE SERVICE at the EGLISE SUISSE

on Sunday, October 28th, 1934.

"Then the eleven disciples went away into Galilee, into a mountain where Jesus had appointed them."

"And when they saw him, they worshipped him: but some doubted."

"And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth."

"Go ye, therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world." (Math. XXVIII, 16-20).

This beautiful and appropriate text, the final verses of the last chapter of the Gospel, according to St. Mathew, was chosen by the Rev. C. T. HAHN in his sermon at the EGLISE SUISSE, Endell Street, last Sunday, 28th October. The occasion was the Silver Jubilee Celebration in honour of the Rev. R. HOFFMANN-DE VISME, the well-beloved pastor of that Church.

Pastor HAHN preached to a large and distinguished congregation; since, from an early hour, the members of the Swiss Colony in London arrived, to honour their spiritual leader on this great and solemn day. Both communities of the Swiss Church in London were most fully represented and every seat taken when, at 11 o'clock, to the mighty strains of Bach's Prelude, played by Mr. E. A. SEYMOUR, the procession, formed by the eminent delegates and the two Swiss Pastors, filed up the aisle, headed by M. C. R. PARAVICINI, the Swiss Minister. After they had taken their seats in the chancel, the Rev. HAHN delivered the Invocation, which was followed by the singing of "Grand Dieu nous bénissons," in which not only all voices, but all hearts, too, seemed to join. The very air vibrated with gladness, as the strains of this mighty Te Deum ascended towards the heavens and into which each man, each woman present, put their joy and thankfulness of heart. After the first two verses there followed the recitation of the Confession of Sins and the Apostle's Creed and then the Organ and congregation took up, with inspiration, the last verse "Gloire soit au Saint-Esprit."

M. ALFRED BRAUEN, President of the Consistory, was to have read the Lesson but, unfortunately, his health did not permit him to attend and Pastor HAHN read two Psalms and a portion from the Corinthians, from the pulpit. Another Hymn followed, after which the Rev. HAHN delivered a most beautiful prayer, thanking God for the uncounted blessings which He had bestowed upon the EGLISE SUISSE and upon its Pastor, the Rev. HOFFMANN-DE VISME, during the 25 years of his Ministry and leadership. This prayer, in which all hearts were fervently united, led to the Sermon, which Pastor HAHN preached in French, on the text already quoted. He enlarged on same in beautiful language and with great feeling; his earnest and sincere utterance must have deeply touched not only the chief personage of Sunday's celebration, but every one present and will remain unforgettable to all who heard it. At the conclusion of the Sermon, Miss NELLY PALLISER rendered Beethoven's "Dieu dans ses œuvres," accompanied on the Organ by Mr. WILMHURST, F.R.C.O. Her crystal-clear and beautiful voice came as a worthy climax to the great oration that went before. Thus ended the first part of this memorable service and it then fell to the distinguished visiting delegates to address Pastor HOFFMANN-DE VISME and to tender him their heartfelt thanks and congratulations.

Our esteemed Minister, M. C. R. PARAVICINI, was the first to speak. He said:

Dans ce monde où tout est éphémère, où nous sommes à chaque heure, à chaque minute à la merci du hasard, d'événements imprévus et soudains, soumis à l'influence des forces mystérieuses par lesquelles le Tout-Puissant gouverne nos fragiles existences, l'humanité a accepté cette pensée qu'ici-bas, rien n'est certain hors la mort.

Et pourtant, rien n'est-il vraiment certain? Il me semble que malgré l'incertitude perpétuelle dans laquelle nous vivons, il y a cependant des choses dont nous pouvons prévoir et prédire l'accomplissement. Aujourd'hui, alors que nous avons la joie de pouvoir donner expression à la reconnaissance que nous vous devons, Monsieur le Pasteur, à vous qui, depuis un quart de siècle, vous dévouez pour notre salut, nous savons qu'une chose au moins est certaine: notre gratitude; nous savons que, quoiqu'il advienne, celle-ci vivra dans nos coeurs, qu'elle vous suivra inaltérée au cours des années qui viendront, comme vos œuvres vous suivront, vos œuvres, dont nous avons si largement bénéficié.

Ainsi, si nous avons tenu ce matin à nous réunir dans notre petite Eglise, c'est que nous voulions rendre grâce. Rendre grâce à Dieu premièrement, qui vous a choisi pour être son Ministre dans cette communauté, puis ensuite vous remercier, vous, notre pasteur.

Vingt-cinq ans, c'est un beau record. Je ne sais pas si dans les annales de cette Eglise, il y en a parmi vos prédécesseurs qui ont tenu cet office pendant le même nombre d'années que vous, mais ce que je sais, c'est qu'aucun d'eux n'aura exercé son ministère dans une période plus remplie de difficultés et d'épreuves. Aucun d'eux n'aura vu plus que vous les misères de la guerre, aucun d'eux n'aura donné plus que vous n'avez donné, alors que la paix avait quitté le monde. Car bien que la Suisse ait par miracle été épargnée de la lutte sanglante, elle a néanmoins souffert et souffre encore de ses malheureuses conséquences dans toute la mesure.

Les premières années de votre ministère s'écoulent dans une époque que nous appelons aujourd'hui "le bon vieux temps," la période qui suivit vous apporta des besognes, des soucis et des responsabilités dont le poids eut effrayé les plus courageux. Et la lourde tâche qui est venue, à ce moment-là, se poser sur vos épaules, n'a depuis jamais été allégée. Un homme moins fort, moins énergique, moins infatigable, moins décidé à suffrir, coûte que coûte, à son devoir sacré, aurait peut-être, ou même certainement sous une telle charge eu des moments de découragement. Vous, Monsieur le Pasteur, vous êtes vaillamment resté à votre poste et Dieu sait que pour vous et votre maison pendant tout ce temps les soucis et les épreuves, n'ont pas manqué; et comment ne pourrions-nous pas penser en ce jour à cette femme admirable qui fut votre compagne et qui vous seconda si fidèlement dans votre travail.

Le quart de siècle dont nous célébrons le terme, devra rester dans l'histoire de notre Eglise une période mémorable; mémorable par les vicissitudes à travers lesquelles le monde, notre Patrie, notre communauté ont passé, mémorable par les mérites de l'homme qui a occupé sa chaire.

Cette Eglise, nous la voyons aujourd'hui, grâce à ceux qui ont veillé sur son destin, avec derrière elle une existence florissante, fermement établie, centre spirituel, éducatif et charitable de notre colonie. Quelle soit reconnue comme telle, respectée comme telle, la preuve en est la présence ici des dignitaires d'autres congrégations, représentants de l'Archevêque de Canterbury, de l'Évêque de Londres et des Eglises de Suisse. Ils nous font l'honneur de participer à ce Service et ils voudront bien recevoir, à cette occasion, l'assurance de la valeur que nous attachons à la franche et belle entente entre leurs Eglises et la nôtre. Nous vous savons gré M. le Pasteur d'avoir maintenu et resserré ces précieux liens de collaboration avec les institutions sous la garde de nos hôtes et si pour terminer ces quelques paroles, je vous présente au nom de nous tous, l'hommage de notre gratitude, je voudrais le faire en disant la vieille et simple prière anglaise :

"We pray that the Almighty God may bestow His blessing upon your labours for many years to come."

The Rev. H. W. FOX, M.A., D.S.O., speaking in French, brought messages of high appreciation and congratulations from His Grace; the Archbishop of Canterbury, which he handed over to the recipient in the form of a written address.

The Rev. A. H. LLOYD, C.B.E., spoke on behalf of the Bishop of London, coupling these sentiments with his own and his personal high regard for, and friendship with, M. HOFFMANN.

The Free Churches had delegated Sir MURRAY HISLOP, J.P., who enlarged on the wide field of activity, in which Pastor HOFFMANN had interested himself and of the great work done by him, outside his immediate sphere of the Swiss Church, stressing how much had been achieved through his great knowledge, his wide experience and his unbounded enthusiasm. These wonderful messages of congratulation and thanks, which testified to the very high esteem in which Pastor HOFFMANN is being held, both in this country and his own, were most ably wound up by M. le Pasteur H. L. HENRIOD, who spoke on behalf of the Federation of the Swiss Churches and the Consistory of the Church of Geneva. All these pronouncements had in them a ring of deep sincerity and great admiration and it must have filled all those present with pride, to know how greatly the personality and the work of our senior spiritual guide are being recognised and appreciated.

Touching references were made — how could they be omitted? — to the undying memory of Madame Hoffmann-de Visme, her life of devotion, her wonderful work and her fervent belief, transmitted to us as a spiritual legacy and as a great and deep inspiration. Many eyes were turned, in loving memory, towards that beautiful Tablet, which has only recently been unveiled and which, for this occasion, was most fittingly decorated by a lovely flower arrangement beneath it.

The service is drawing towards a close: Another beautiful solo by Miss PALLISER (Cantate de Pentecôte by J. S. Bach) with Organ accompaniment, then a final prayer.

M. HOFFMANN-DE VISME himself now ascends the pulpit, to pronounce upon us all the Benediction, in a voice sonorous, yet touched with deep emotion, an emotion which must have found its echo in the hearts of all his devoted hearers.

The congregation remains standing while the procession of pastors and delegates files out, after the National Anthem had been played, symbolizing one of the many treasured links that bind our dear homeland with the hospitable land of our adoption.

One more look at the beautifully decorated and to us all so dear little church; the green laurel wreaths and garlands, wound with silver ribbons and the beautiful flowers, will ever form a fragrant background to the treasured memories of this Jubilee Service in honour of our beloved pastor, guide and friend, RENE HOFFMANN-DE VISME.

At 6.30 p.m. the same evening another service took place, conducted by Pastor HOFFMANN personally and followed by Holy Communion.

MONTHLY REPORT ON THE STOCK EXCHANGE OF ZURICH.

By Leu and Co.'s. Bank Limited, Zurich.

As it was the case with the industrial crisis, the reaction on the Swiss stock exchanges appeared later than in some other countries. This reaction however then reached all departments of the exchange with the exception of the loans of the Confederation, the Federal State Railways, the Cantons, the more important cities and some public utilities. The bonds of a great many trust companies and industrial corporations, which some years ago have been very popular and considered well secured, are to-day quoted at such low levels, which hardly seem justified. To some extent these low quotations may also be due to the fact, that there are no buyers in the market, even when the offer is a very small one. Under these circumstances it is not astonishing that with a few exceptions the share market does not give a very encouraging picture.

Therefore the activity of the exchange is for a great deal limited to business in State and City bonds, with some transactions also taking place in public utilities. The yield basis of these issues is at the present time around 4%. To consolidate the floating debt and to cover current requirements the Swiss Confederation has issued this last week a new four per cent. loan of 100 millions Swiss Francs at 99.25% and interest. This issue was a great success and was placed almost exclusively in our country, contrary to some former loans, which have interested many foreign markets.

As regards the development of quotations in Swiss securities during the month of October, a rather firm tendency was evident for interest-bearing bonds. Shares of banks and insurance companies were quiet, with almost no change. The shares of Swiss Trust Companies with important interests in South American Countries experienced for some time a noticeable betterment in their quotations, due to favourable reports received from these countries. Later on a reaction was evident in this section of the market and it was difficult for some issues to hold their former higher level. In the industrial share market there is to be registered a set-back in the Aluminium Neuhausen, whereas the Maschinenfabrik Oerlikon advanced rather sharply, due to the statement issued by this Company that due to the still lasting shrinkage in their business a part repayment on the capital will be made shortly; this firmness was even more astonishing as it is for the first time in more than twenty years that this Company passed the dividend on the share capital. The common shares of the well-known Nestlé Company distinguished themselves through a remarkable stability and are still considered as most attractive ones. Also some other shares of the food industry as well as those of the electrical industry were able to hold their level, whereas other industrial securities mostly declined.
