65th FETE SUISSE.

Alors quoi? Encore une fête? Décidément le Suisse ne saurait changer de peau, même à l'étranger! Il lui faut ses fêtes, ses vagues, ses kermesses, ses abbayes et tout le reste.

Et pourtant ne médissez pas de ses chères habitudes. Après tout, il y a quelque chose de légitime dans ce désir qu'il éprouve de se rencontrer avec ses concitoyens, de serrer les rangs, de se sentir un avec l'âme de la patrie absente, précisément parce qu'il est expatrié. C'est ici dans la grande ville étrangère qu'on a besoin particulièrement de se retrouver tous ensemble, au moins une fois l'an. Et c'est ce qui sera le cas jeudi, le 21 juin, au Central Hall, Westminster, dans cette salle, où, pour un soir, on se croirait en Suisse, tant l'atmosphère y est cordiale et chaleureuse, tant les chants et les mélodies du pays parlent au cœur.

Vous aussi, ami lecteur, vous ne manquerez pas de vous y trouver.

On compte sur vous.

THE SWISS Y.M.C.A.

This most cheering, hopeful branch of Christian activity has continued its useful and healthful work with all the entrain of youth, and with corresponding success during this another year. There are at present 25 members of the association, and this little band of pious young Swiss exert a considerable influence for good in the Colony.

Our young friends meet every week for the study of the Word of God, for prayer, and to encourage each other in good works. It is truly a pleasure to see how glad they are to come, and what profitable times they spend together. What a beautiful thing if the nations of the world would do on a large scale what we are doing here on a modest one. In our association there is free and easy intercourse, exchange of ideas, broadening of sympathies, true brotherhood, although we come from different "cantons" and are otherwise different in many respects. Nothing astonishing in that, since we are a "Christian Association," taking Jesus Christ as our King. We are one in Him.

In addition to the ordinary meetings, many most interesting lectures on various subjects—missions, travels, history, language—have been given by various lecturers and friends, and we have a Secretary on the spot, ready and willing to help and pilot, especially the new-comers to this Great City.

Recreation, as well as edification and instruction, have each their place with us. Several of our members are very musical and have given us in the winter months delightful musical evenings. Luther rightly said: "Music puts the devil to flight," that is to say, puts to flight worries, evil thoughts and sadness. During the summer occasional rambles into the open country and delightful garden parties are organised, affording our young people much enjoyment and opportunities for still more intimate fellowship and happy intercourse. No young Swiss need be lonely and friendless in London; they should all come to the Swiss Y.M.C.A., where they will be heartily welcome, and at once feel "at home" in our midst.

Unfortunately we have suffered a great loss at the end of last year. For reasons of health our popular Secretary, Mr. A. E. Wirz (who is well known to many readers of the "Swiss Observer"), had to return to Switzerland, and the advice of his doctor is, not to submit himself again to the English climate. At the annual general meeting, held on 15th of February last, the members elected Mr. S. Zwingli, who has been the society's Treasurer for many years, as their new Secretary. Mr. Zwingli is in attendance at the clubroom daily from 4 to 6 p.m., except Saturdays and Sundays.
