MONTHLY REPORT ON THE STOCK EXCHANGE OF ZURICH.

(by Leu and Co's Bank Limited, Zurich.)

Since the beginning of January the stock-market showed a decidedly better disposition, although it did not come all of a sudden. For a while the pending Saar-plebiscite checked the activity of the stock-market somewhat. After this was over the market would have been ready to accept the improved atmosphere, but once more the upward trend was disturbed for a short time, when through a statement of the Banque Commerciale de Bâle saying that their own stocks would be given a free chance of developing according to the law of supply and demand, all bank-shares suffered a slump. After some ups and downs, the oscillations became less pronounced and finally for all classes of stocks and bonds the ground was levelled for improvement.

The average yield of the Swiss gilt-edged bonds was reduced from 4.20 to 4.06 per cent. within a few weeks and it seems as if interest rates for first class securities in general are declining, a prospect which especially France is aiming at and which the English as well as the American markets have widely realised.

A standard paper that shows this movement clearly is the serie A-K of the 3½% Swiss Federal Railways, which passed the 95 per cent. mark on several occasions and is traded now for approximately 94½ per cent. Similar firmness is found with a number of other bond issues of the Confederation and the Federal Railways, such as 3½% Federal Railways 1910 from 90 to 92½%, 4% Federal Railways 1931 from 96.80 to 98.80%, 3½% Confederation 1909 from 95 to 98.25%.

Also foreign bonds improved steadily. The German ones gained in connection with the Saar-decision 4 to 5 points and the French were influenced advantageously by Mr. Flandin's new money policy.

In connection with the above mentioned bank-statement the stock-market has to register a few wild sessions in which most prices fell. Since then, however, a counter-movement set in and gave the market a bullish appearance. Although the excitement has ebbed off to a large degree the tendency is still firm. This is remarkable in so far as the support from foreign markets was almost lacking completely, especially New York was in a sulking mood and is still inactive on account of the Supreme Court's hesitancy in re "Gold Clause." Also the depression of rail stocks to lower levels acknowledged the poor results of the past year and affected the American railway stocks widely. Among the Swiss trust companies "Elektrobank" and "Motor-Columbus" made the biggest advances (from 545-590 and 185-210). Also Swiss industrial shares enjoyed greater interest. "Aluminium" opened suddenly 100 francs firmer from one day to the other, as news spread of a largely increased annual export figure. Since then further advances have taken place. For a while also "Nestlé" was greatly favoured and top prices of over 800 francs were paid. A slight reaction however, caused a set back and bids are round 790. Besides these two favourites other shares made slight gains, such as "Lonza, Brown Boveri, Sulzer, Fisherstahl," etc., while insurance stock kept pretty steady.
