hiesigen Schweizerkolonie ersuchen mich einstimmig dem Schweizervolke gegenüber der Hoffnung Ausdruck zu geben dass dieses Volk am 24. Februar eingedenk seiner Vergangenheit Ihnen die Gefolgschaft nicht versagen und so einstimmig wie möglich seinem festen Willen Ausdruck vertheilen möge die Geforderten Opfer im Interesse seiner Landesverteidigung zu bringen.

Paravicini.

The resolution was, after the meeting, telegraphed to the Federal Government by our Minister, Monsieur Paravicini, in the name of our Colony.

Mlle. Briod gave, in a beautifully delivered lecture, an exhaustive account of the very responsible, difficult and extremely valuable work the Secrétariat des Suisses à l'Etranger has been performing in the mutual interest of the Swiss abroad and our own country. The Secrétariat strives above all to strengthen and fructify the bonds between the home country and the Fourth Switzerland, which latter is of great value, and could be of even greater assistance, to the home country both as a pioneer for its products and its spiritual values and as a disinterested counsellor in the political, economic and social difficulties through which it is at present passing. Full extracts of Mlle. Briod's stimulating lecture will be published in a future issue of the "Swiss Observer."

As the last speaker Dr. H. W. Egli, the London representative of "Der Bund," after vigorously seconding M. de Jenner's resolution, issued to those present and the Colony at large a hearty invitation in the name of the N. S. H. to take a more active interest in the developments of affairs in Switzerland, and as an easy way to do so, to turn up in large numbers at the future evenings to be organised by the N. S. H. for the discussion of home affairs. The discussions which will take place every second month on the third Friday at the Foyer Suisse, preceded by a simple joint meal (inclusive charge 2s. 6d.) and a short introductory talk on the most recent problems that have arisen in Switzerland. The N. S. H. hopes that these meetings will become a regular platform for voicing the opinions of our Colony on the developments in Switzerland, as well as on problems concerning our Colony.

UNIONE TICINESE.

Domenica, 17 febbraio a.c., l'Unione Ticinese tenne la sua prima Assemblea Generale Ordinaria dell'anno in corso con un modesto concorso di Soci.

Presiedeva il Vice Presidente, Signor Oscar Gambazzi, nellainevitabile assenza del Presidente, Signor Willie Notari.

Nessun commento sulla lettura del verbale della precedente Assemblea Generale e così pure il rapporto della Commissione per la Revisione dei Conti viene approvato all'unanimità. Il solerte Segretario, Signor Pietro De Maria, riferisce quindi dettagliatamente sull'attività svolta dal Sodalizio durante il decorso anno 1934, il sessantesimo dell'Unione Ticinese; ricorda i festeggiamenti e passa poi a giustificare ogni singola posta del conto gestione con una scrupolosità da fare invidia ad un banchiere.

Assolto il mandato, la Direzione per l'esercizio 1934 si dimette e si passa immediatamente alla nomina della nuova Direzione, la quale viene scelta come segue:

- O. Gambazzi, Presidente;
- G. Eusebio, Vice Presidente;
- P. De Maria, Segretario;
- U. Hauswirth, Vice Segretario;
- C. Berti, Cassiere;
- A. Moretti, Esattore;
- G. Camozzi, Membro;
- C. Donati, Membro;
- E. Longhi, Membro;
- R. Orelli, Membro;
- C. Togni, Membro.

Il ritiro dalla Presidenza del Signor Willie Notari, che per ben sedici anni ricoprì la più alta carica dell'Unione in modo magistrale, va notato quale avvenimento di eccezionale importanza nella storia dell'Unione Ticinese. L'attività indefessa che spiegò con raro entusiasmo, gagliarda energia e fine spirito d'iniziativa gli varrà la gratitudine imperitura dell'intera Società. Nel perdere si valente timoniere — speriamolo soltanto temporaneamente — tuttavia l'Unione Ticinese può dirsi fortunata d'aver potuto contare su persona non meno degna di dirigerne i propri destini, Parzillo Signor Oscar Gambazzi che conta circa mezzo secolo d'associazione con il Sodalizio del quale, com'è del resto noto, fu segretario per trent'un anni e, da ultimo, l'istoriografo.

In una breve allocuzione, con voce commossa quasi, il neo eletto Presidente ringrazia per l'attestazione di fiducia di cui è stato fatto segno e con pacate parole traccia vividamente l'opera imponente del suo predecessore. Gli fanno eco nello stesso senso il Cassiere, Signor C. Berti, ed il Segretario, Signor P. De Maria.

Lunedì, 1 aprile p.v., fu proposto ed approvato quale data per il banchetto annuale, mentre alla Direzione fu assegnato l'incarico di studiare e eventualmente organizzare un'escursione sociale.

Esaurite in seguito altre trattande all'ordine del giorno di secondaria importanza, l'Assemblea a dichiarata chiusa.

SHERRY PARTY AT THE LEGATION.

A Sherry Party was held at the Legation on Wednesday last, to meet Mlle. Briod, Secrétaire de l'Office des Suisses à l'Etranger.

FOOTBALL.

17th February, 1935.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Lugano .....	6	Concordia .....	1
Carouge .....	0	Nordstern .....	2
Young Fellows .....	2	Grasshoppers .....	1
Locarno .....	1	Servette .....	1
Bern .....	5	Young Boys .....	0
Biel .....	4	Chaux-de-Fonds .....	1
Basel .....	0	Lausanne .....	1

Lausanne are once more back to the first rung of the league-ladder, thanks to Servette unexpectedly dropping a point in Locarno. Lugano keep third place, but Young Fellows jump over Grasshoppers and Basel to fourth. The local derby in Bern ended even more disastrously for the Y. B. than in the first round. Surprising, especially as Bern have not been nearly so good of late, as they were in the early part of the season.

The real surprise, however, was recorded in the First League. In the group East, Lucerne headed the table with 22 points from 12 games, 10 wins and 2 draws, the only undefeated club in the two top divisions of all Switzerland. They travelled to Bellinzona, the bottom club of the group, having won only once and a long time since; they retire well and truly beaten by three goals to nil! Wonders never cease; Lucerne are still very well placed, as the second club, St. Gall, has but 14 points safe in the locker though three games in hand. But they must not follow the example of Aarau, leaders in the western group. Aarau was running away with it, winning their first nine games off the reel; then they stumbled against Old Boys, lingering somewhere near the bottom of the list and, strange to say, Aarau has lost every game since. After 13 matches they still have only 18 points and both Olten and Grenchen are now within striking distance. The glorious uncertainty of football.
