FEDERAL. NEW SWISS MINISTER AT WARSAW. The Federal Conncil has appointed M. Maxime de Stoutz, at present "chef de la division étrangères du Dept. Politique fédérale " in Berne, to the post of Swiss Minister at War-saw, in succession to M. de Segesser, who recently died. M. de Stoutz, who is a citizen of Genera, is 55 years old. He entered into the diplomatic service of the Confederation in 1907. He occupied various posts at the Legations in London, Tokio and Paris, and in 1925 he was promoted to the post of Swiss Minister in Madrid, where he spent several years. On the appointment of M. Dinichert to the

On the appointment of M. Dinichert to the Legation in Berlin (1932) he succeeded him as "chef de la division étrangères du Dept. Politique fédérale " in Berne.

The vacancy caused through the departure of M. de Stoutz, will be filled by M. Pierre Bonna, Counsellor of Legation, from Geneva, who is at present at the Foreign Office in Berne.

SWISS FILM CHAMBER.

The co-operation of State with private enterprise was suggested at a conference at the Federal Palace, Berne, called by the Home Office, to discuss the present day situation of the Swiss cinema.

The conference was attended by representa-tives of various sections of the Federal Ad-ministration, county police chiefs and education directors, representatives of learned societies, the Press, and from the film world there was a representative body of producers, financiers, renters and cinema directors.

Federal Councillor Etter suggested that the moment had arrived when the various groups interested in the film should be banded together. That State and private individuals and firms should co-operate he considered necessary as much from the point of view of economy as that of national and artistic advancement.

The assembly approved of the formation of a Chambre Fódérale du Cinema and the Home Office nominated a commission. At the same time a sub-commission was appointed to examine the economical and financial aspect of the question. A second sub-commission will be appointed to examine the artistic and scientific aspect. examine the artistic and scientific aspect.

NEWS FOR MOTORISTS.

The Swiss Federal Council have decided that motorists from Great Britain and Northern Ireland will no longer need international triptyques in Switzerland. Their own national driving licences will in future be sufficient.

The Swiss Federal Council decided recently, to require international triptychs from not of require international unprychis from motorists coming from Great Britain and North-ern Ireland, so that motorists from these coun-tries can travel in Switzerland with their national licences and log-book.

DEFENCE AGAINST SPECULATORS.

The Board of the Bank of International Settlements discussed the exchange differences in various countries, and agreed that at the first sign of attack against the currency of any country connected with the bank a common measure of defence should be adopted.

It was in this way that the recent attacks on the French and Swiss francs and on the Dutch guilder were defeated.

Particular measures were discussed against speculators in international currencies, who operated without cover or insufficient cover, and it was decided to adopt common measures of de-fence against such speculation.

MELTING SNOW FLOODS IN SWITZERLAND. Rapidly melting snow on the mountains con-tinues to swell Swiss rivers, resulting in extensive flooding. The waters of Lake Lucerne, which takes some of the flood water overflowed the banks and flooded cellars.

At Stansstaad water penetrated into the restaurant at the railway station.

The River Rhone is still in flood and continues to inundate its surrounding plain.

SWISS CURRENCY.

Although the privilege of the Swiss National Bank to issue bank notes does not expire until June, 1937, an extra-ordinary general meeting was held in order to apply to the Swiss Federal Council for the extension of this privilege until 1947.

Professor Bachmann, President of the Board of Directors, stated that Switzerland had no in-tention whatever of leaving the gold standard. ALPINE PASSES OPENED.

ALPINE PASSES OPENED. The Julier, Saint-Gothard, Simplon, and Grimsel passes are now open to motor traffic, thanks to the efforts of the Swiss Automobile Club, the Touring Club, and local authorities at whose expense workmen have cut through the frozen snow which still covers the top part of these passes. In some places the roads pass between walls of snow 9ft. to 12ft. high. LEAGUE'S OLD HOME FOR SALE. The building in which for the last 15 years

The building in which for the last 15 years Europe's post-war history has been made, while housing the Secretariat of the League of Nations, is for sale.

Before the end of the year it is hoped to move the 600 members of the League staff, together with several thousand books and many tons of files and records, to the new million pound palace in the suburbs of Geneva. Then the former Hotel National will be empty.

ZURICH.

LURICH. Lively scenes were witnessed during a sitting of the Grand Council in Zurich. M. Oldani, a Socialist member made a strong and rather tactless and heated attack on the "Nationale Front;" Dr. Tobler, interrupted the speaker with the remark: "Sale cochon!" Real pandemonium then started, and when the Socialist E. Walter declared, that in case of war two thousand Frontist officers would go over to Hitler with "flying banners;" the frontist member Dr.

Tobler jumped at the last speaker and a real fight begar

They were separated with great difficulty, and after a short debate it was decided to exclude both Dr. Tobler and M. Walter from the sitting. * *

From Zurich comes the news of the death of Dr. Ernst Walder, at the age of 84. The deceased was for 36 years a teacher at the "Kantons-schule" in Zurich.

BERNE.

At the meeting of the Berne Grand Council M. Grimm drew the attention to the increase of Nazi propaganda in Switzerland.

The activities of Nazi agents have recently caused the Federal Government to take special precautions. Among these is the formation of a new police division which is charged solely with tracking down and watching foreign political agents.

M. Grimm alleged that since 1933, in addi-tion to seven German clubs or societies then existing at Berne, ten new societies of Nazi character had been founded. These societies, he said, brought pressure to bear on German subjects living in Switzerland, forcing them to contribute subscriptions under pain of being placed on a list of marked men which is forwarded to the Nazi authorities in Germany. authorities in Germany.

The Federal Council has appointed Dr. H. Morf, advocate in Winterthur, to be the new "Direktor des Eidgenössischen Amtes für geistiges Eigentum" in succession to M. Walter Kraft who is retiring from his post at the end of this month.
